Aneurin Bevan University Health Board

Making an application

Thank you for your interest in the appointment of an Independent Member (Community) to the Aneurin Bevan University Health Board. The new Independent Member will be required to play a full and active role in the governance of the Health Board. The attached Annexes provide details on the role of the Independent Member, the person specification, the role and responsibilities of Aneurin Bevan University Health Board and the selection process.

To make an application please visit the Welsh Government public appointment website here <https://cymru-wales.tal.net/vx/lang-en-GB/mobile-0/appcentre-3/brand-2/candidate/jobboard/vacancy/7/adv/>.

To apply for this role, click on the Aneurin Bevan University Health Board vacancy and click on 'Apply' at the bottom left hand corner. The first time you apply for a post, you will need to complete a registration form for the Welsh Government's online application system. You will only need to register once, and you will be able to keep yourself updated on the progress of your application, and any other applications you make, via your registered account.

Once you've registered, you'll be able to access the application form. To apply, you will need to submit the application form and two supporting documents. The first supporting document is a personal statement providing answers, in terms of evidencing competences, to the questions detailed below. This document should be no more than two sides of A4. Your application may be rejected if you exceed this limit. The second supporting document is a full, up to date CV. The two supporting documents should be uploaded to the "Reasons for applying" section of the online application form.

Personal Statement

Your personal statement is your opportunity to demonstrate how you meet each of the criteria as set out in the questions below. How you choose to present this information is up to you. However, you should aim to provide detailed examples that demonstrate how your knowledge and experience matches each of the criteria, and which describe what your role was in achieving a specific result. It will also benefit the selection panel if you can be clear which particular evidence you provide relates to which criteria. Providing separate paragraphs in relation to each criteria is common practice.

Questions to answer as part of your application in your personal statement.

Please outline how you meet the role specific criteria.

Describe your understanding of health issues and priorities in Wales and how these apply within the Aneurin Bevan University Health Board.

Please give a specific example or examples of when you have had to analyse complex information to contribute to sound decision making.

Please describe an occasion when you have held a senior person to account while maintaining a constructive relationship.

Aneurin Bevan University Health Board

Please provide evidence of your communications and engagement skills. Please provide a specific example outlining your approach in communicating and engaging with people at all levels, what skills and methods you used and the outcome.

Please describe a specific example or examples where you have involved various teams, partners or stakeholders to improve a service or process. Please outline your personal contribution and the outcome.

CV

Please ensure your CV includes brief details of your current or most recent post and the dates you occupied this role. Please identify any past or present Ministerial appointments.

Guaranteed Interview Scheme

The Welsh Government operates a Guaranteed Interview Scheme (GIS) for disabled people. The Equality Act 2010 defines a person as disabled if they have a physical or mental impairment and the impairment has a substantial and long term adverse effect on their ability to carry out normal day to day activities. Under the GIS a disabled candidate will be selected for interview if they meet the minimum essential criteria for the post.

Indicative timetable

Closing date:	3 February 2017
Shortlisting complete:	w/c 13 February 2017
Interviews held:	w/c 27 February 017
Start date:	As soon as an appointment can be made.

Key facts about the post

Location:	The Health Board's headquarters are at St Cadocs Hospital, Caerleon, at which most Board meetings and Committee meetings are held. Board members are also expected to attend events and activities throughout the Health Board area.
Remuneration:	£15,936 per annum
Time Commitment:	The post of Independent Member is based on a notional commitment of a minimum of (four) 4 days per month but this will be subject to organisational demands and is often higher than the minimum requirement.

- Ability to hold the executives to account for performance whilst maintaining a constructive relationship;
- Ability to provide a knowledgeable, impartial and balanced perspective on a range of sensitive and complex issues;
- A broad understanding of the governance requirements.

Personal Attributes & Skills

The Health Board has defined a set of shared core values and behaviours – what the organisation stands for. You will need to be able to demonstrate the following:

- Good communication skills and the ability to engage with employees and employee representatives at all levels within the Health Board;

Aneurin Bevan University Health Board

- Ability to work as part of a team and in partnership with other key organisations;
- Ability to involve and work with stakeholders to help shape, develop and improve services; and
- Ability to analyse and critically review complex information

To be considered, you must be able to demonstrate that you have the qualities, skills and experience to meet all the essential criteria for appointment.

Role Specific Criteria

The criteria specific for this role is as follows:-

You will have to demonstrate:-

- Knowledge of and empathy with local community issues and priorities;
- A citizen focussed approach, championing the Board's purpose in serving the public;
- Experience and skills that will support the Health Board in developing its community engagement.

On this occasion the Health Board will be particularly interested in hearing from applicants who are able to meet these criteria in relation to the communities of Caerphilly and Blaenau Gwent.

The Board Secretary of Aneurin Bevan University Health Board is happy to discuss the role specific criteria with applicants on request. Please see page 5 for contact details.

Welsh Language

Welsh language skills are desirable but not a pre-requisite for appointment. However all candidates will be expected to display an empathy towards the language and demonstrate leadership to strengthen bilingual service provision within the NHS in Wales.

Time commitment

The post of Independent Member to Aneurin Bevan University Health Board is based on a notional commitment of a minimum four (4) days per month but this will be subject to organisational demands and is often higher than the minimum requirement.

Remuneration

The post of Independent Member will be paid at £15,936 per annum, paid monthly or quarterly in arrears as agreed with the Health Board.

Aneurin Bevan University Health Board

Expenses

You will be entitled to be re-imbursed, if appropriate, against receipts for travel and subsistence expenses incurred while on Health Board business. Expenses must be claimed within three months of them being incurred unless there are exceptional circumstances.

Childcare and other dependent expenses may also be paid, on production of receipts, for additional costs incurred while undertaking Health Board work.

Tenure of office

The Cabinet Secretary for Health, Well-being and Sport determines the length of the appointment, which will initially be up to four (4) years. However, this is subject to the Independent Member remaining eligible for the role for the duration of the term. Board members may stand for a maximum of eight (8) years.

Accountability

Members are appointed by the Cabinet Secretary for Health, Well-being and Sport and are accountable to the Cabinet Secretary for Health, Well-being and Sport via the Chair for carrying out their duties and for their performance.

Assistance for Disabled Members

Where appropriate all reasonable adjustments will be made to enable members to effectively carry out their duties.

Eligibility

A person shall be disqualified from appointment if he/she:

- a. has within the preceding 5 years been convicted in the UK, Channel Islands or the Isle of Man of any offence and has had passed on him/her a sentence of imprisonment (whether suspended or not) for a period of not less than 3 months;
- b. has been adjudged bankrupt or has made a composition or arrangement with his creditors;
- c. has been dismissed, otherwise than by reason of redundancy, or non-renewal of a fixed term contract, from any paid employment with a health service body;
- d. is a person whose tenure of office as the chairman, member or director of a health service body has been terminated because his/her appointment is not in the interests of the health service, for non-attendance at meetings or for non-disclosure of pecuniary interest;
- e. is a health service employee;

It is the policy of the Welsh Government that all recent employees of LHBs and NHS Trusts should serve a non-involvement break before being considered for an NHS Public Appointment.

Any other information that may materially affect your application for appointment should be declared in the application form under the Conflict of Interests section.

Aneurin Bevan University Health Board

Applicants should be persons who conduct themselves at all times in a manner which will maintain public confidence.

In particular, applicants are required to declare whether they are aware of anything in their private or professional life that would be an embarrassment to themselves or to the Welsh Government if it became known in the event of appointment.

Candidates should also note that membership of a LHB is a disqualifying office for membership of the National Assembly for Wales under the National Assembly for Wales (Disqualification) Order 2015.

Conflicts of Interest

You should particularly note the requirement for you to declare any private interests which may, or may be perceived to, conflict with the role and responsibilities as an Independent Member of Aneurin Bevan University Health Board including any business interests and positions of authority outside of the role in Aneurin Bevan University Health Board.

If appointed, Independent Members must declare these interests and seek confirmation from the Chair of Aneurin Bevan University Health Board that no conflict has arisen and if it is appropriate for them to remain a board member.

Standards in public life

Independent Members will be expected to adhere to the standards of good governance set for the NHS in Wales, which are based on the Welsh Government's Citizen Centred Governance Principles and incorporate Nolan's "Seven Principles of Public Life."

The role and responsibilities of Aneurin Bevan University Health Board

Background

Aneurin Bevan University Health Board (UHB) is an organisation with a budget of just over £1 billion. It was established in 2009 as an integrated Local Health Board responsible for planning and delivering a wide range of primary, community and secondary health services to the populations of Blaenau Gwent, Caerphilly, Monmouthshire, Newport, and Torfaen. The Health Board also has the responsibility to work with partners to promote and improve the health and well-being of its local population. Taken together with an estimate of the patients living in South Powys and other areas that are served by the UHB for acute services, the patient population served is close to 600,000. The University Health Board commissions a broad range of services secured through a number of contracts and contracting arrangements with English, Welsh and Third Sector Providers.

The University Health Board has three acute hospitals providing a range of inpatient and outpatient services; these are the Royal Gwent Hospital in Newport; Ysbyty Ystrad Fawr in Ystrad Mynach and Nevill Hall Hospital in Abergavenny. There are also a range of other hospitals and facilities across Health Board area.

The University Health Board employs 400 General Practitioners and Salaried GPs providing general medical services from 88 General Practices. Supporting these are 214 practice nurses, 145 health care support workers and a number of administrative staff, including practice managers, receptionists, secretaries and IT officers. Around 375 General Dental Practitioners provide general dental services from 79 practices. There are 129 Community Pharmacies and 69 Optometry premises across the University Health Board.

The University Health Board delivers a growing range of community based services in patient's homes, through community hospitals and through health centres and clinics. There are a number of smaller community hospitals, integrated health and social care centres, and health centres providing important clinical services to our residents closer to home.

The University Health Board also provides comprehensive Mental Health and Learning Disabilities services in both hospital and community settings to the population of Gwent and South Powys.

Aneurin Bevan University Health Board

The role of the Board

The three key roles through which the Board of the Aneurin Bevan University Health Board delivers leadership within its organisation are:-

- Formulating strategy.
- Ensuring accountability by holding the organisation to account for the delivery of the strategy and through seeking assurance that systems of control are robust and reliable
- Shaping a positive culture for the organisation.

The role of the Board member focuses on four key areas:-

- Strategy – to contribute to strategic development and decision-making
- Performance – to ensure that effective management arrangement and an effective team are in place at the top level of the organisation. To help clarify which decisions are reserved for the Board and then ensure that the rest are clearly delegated and to hold management to account for its performance in meeting agreed goals and objectives through purposeful challenge and scrutiny, and to monitor the reporting of performance
- Risk – to ensure that financial information is accurate and that financial controls and systems of risk management and assurance are robust and defensible
- Behaviour – to live up to the highest ethical standards of integrity and probity and comply fully with the Code of Conduct. Board members should demonstrate through their behaviour that they are focusing on their responsibilities to citizens, the organisations and its stakeholders

The selection process

The interview panel will assess your application form, CV and the questions you answered as part of your application to determine whether you meet the criteria for the role, and whether or not you will be invited to interview. The panel will rely only on the information you provide in your CV and the questions you answered as part of your application to assess whether you have the skills and experience required. Please ensure that you provide evidence to support how you meet all of the essential criteria.

The selection panel will be consist of David Jenkins OBE , Chair of Aneurin Bevan University Health Board, a representative from Welsh Government Health and Social Services and an Independent Panel Member.

Your application may be “long-listed”, subject to the volume of applications received, before it is passed to the shortlisting panel for consideration. You should be aware that in this situation, your application might not be considered in full by the entire panel.

We anticipate that during the week commencing 13 February 017 the panel will have decided who will be invited for interview which will take place during the week commencing 27 February 2017.

The panel will select for interview only the strongest applicants who it feels have demonstrated that they best meet the criteria set out in the person specification. However, if you have applied under the guaranteed interview scheme and you meet the minimum essential criteria for the post, then you will also be invited for interview.

If you are invited to interview and if the interview date is not already provided in this information pack, we will aim to provide you with as much notice as we can of the interview date. If you are unable to make the arranged interview date, we will endeavour to re-arrange it but it might not be possible due to time constraints within the appointment timetable or selection panel availability.

You will receive email communication from the Appointment system to let you know whether or not you have been invited to be interviewed. It is our intention that interviews will take place at Aneurin Bevan Health Board Headquarters, St Cadoc's Hospital, Lodge Road, Caerleon, Newport NP18 3XQ.

If invited to interview, the panel will question you about your skills and experience, asking specific questions to assess whether you meet the criteria set out for the post.

The appointment process as well as an interview may include further assessment of suitability for the role. Further information will be provided in advance to those called for interview.

Candidates who the panel believe are ‘appointable’, will be recommended to the Cabinet Secretary for Health, Well-being and Sport who will make the final decision. The Cabinet Secretary for Health Well-being and Sport may choose to meet with appointable candidates before making a decision. If he does, he will meet all candidates and in the presence of the panel chair or their nominated representative. There will be a time gap between interview and a final appointment decision being made. Candidates who have been interviewed will be kept informed of progress.

If you are successful, you will receive a letter from the Cabinet Secretary for Health, Well-being and Sport appointing you as an Independent Member of Aneurin Bevan University Health Board, which will confirm the terms on which the appointment is offered.

If you are unsuccessful at interview, you will be notified by Welsh Government. We appreciate it takes a lot of time and effort to apply for roles and that feedback is a valuable part of the process. As a result, the letter will provide the details of who you may approach for feedback on your interview and application, if you so wish
