Non-executive director - Financial Expertise

Reference: S1406

About NHS Improvement

NHS Improvement is responsible for overseeing foundation trusts, NHS trusts and independent providers. We offer the support these providers need to give patients consistently safe, high quality, compassionate care within local health systems that are financially sustainable. By holding providers to account and, where necessary, intervening, we help the NHS to meet its short-term challenges and secure its future.

NHS Improvement is the operational name for the organisation that brings together Monitor, NHS Trust Development Authority, Patient Safety, the National Reporting and Learning System, the Advancing Change team and the Intensive Support Teams.

We value and promote diversity and are committed to equality of opportunity for all and appointments made on merit. We believe that the best boards are those that reflect the communities they serve.

We particularly welcome applications from women, people from the local black and minority ethnic communities, and disabled people who we know are under-represented in chair and non-executive roles.

1. Background to Gloucestershire Care Services NHS Trust

Gloucestershire Care Services NHS Trust was formed in April 2013 and provides a wide range of community services for people of all ages, serving a population of around 600,000 people across the county.

The Trust serves the large urban communities Gloucester and Cheltenham, with smaller market towns and villages making up the rest of this mostly rural county of 1045 square miles (2700 km<sup>2</sup>). The Trust employs 2,700 highly-skilled staff including nursing, medical, dental, allied health professionals, support staff, administrative and clerical workers. We also work in close partnership with around 800 social care staff from Gloucestershire County Council. This collaborative approach is designed to ensure that we can respond to both health and social care needs - which often overlap - to provide the most appropriate service or services. The Trust's main commissioners are Gloucestershire Clinical Commissioning Group and Gloucestershire County Council.

Services provided by the Trust include district nursing, health visiting, school nursing and also specialist services such as sexual health, cardiac care, IV therapies, telehealth and dentistry - as well as seven community hospitals.

The Trust's community hospitals play a vital role in caring for patients of all ages. Working closely with local GPs and Gloucestershire Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust, Gloucestershire Care Services provides in-patient care as well as a range of out-patient clinics and services, including Minor Injury Units. The Trust also provides in-reach services into acute hospitals, nursing and residential homes and social care settings.

Working closely with commissioners, other health professionals and community organisations, the Trust supports people to be in control of their choices and to maintain their independence safely and appropriately. Across all services, the Trust aims to provide local people with the highest quality care, close to or within their home. The Rapid Response teams which provide a 24/7 emergency response and 'hospital at home' as an alternative to admission are a good example of this.

The Trust is also developing new models of care through innovation and initiatives such as Listening into Action, to empower colleagues to implement change and ultimately create sustainable services.

1.1. Vision, values and strategic objectives

Vision and values

The Trust's vision is "To be the service people rely on to understand them and organise their care around their lives".

The Trust's core values - Caring, Open, Responsible and Effective - describe in clear terms the behaviours that patients and service users can expect from everyone working within the Trust, whatever their role.

The Trust's strapline 'Understanding You' underlines the organisation's commitment to putting quality of care and the experience of services users first.

Strategic objectives

- Achieve the best possible outcomes for our service users through high quality care
- Understand the needs and views of service users, carers and families so that their opinions inform every aspect of our work
- Actively engage in partnerships with other health and social care providers in order to deliver seamless services
- Value colleagues, and support them to develop the skills, confidence and ambition to deliver our vision
- Manage public resources wisely to ensure local services remain sustainable and accessible

2. The opportunity

2.1. Person specification

We are recruiting a non-executive director for Gloucestershire Care Services NHS Trust. This is an exceptional opportunity to share your talents and expertise to make a positive difference to the lives of people in your community.

The Trust's strategic priority at this time is the transformation of services to deliver a sustainable system of care in partnership with others. Candidates will need to have a genuine commitment to patients and the promotion of excellent health care services.

2.2. (a) Essential criteria

Extensive senior level financial experience in a large organisation, ideally with a finance qualification.

2.2 (b) Desirable criteria

We welcome people with the appropriate senior experience in complex large organisations with:

- Strategic change skills gained in a challenged environment
- Managing service transformation at scale
- Previous experience in a non-executive role

2.3. Board level behaviours

The NHS Leadership model describes nine behaviours which together contribute towards strong and effective NHS leaders. If you are invited to interview, you will also need to demonstrate the range of behaviours required to contribute effectively in this board level role:

- Inspiring shared purpose - create a shared purpose for diverse individuals doing different work, inspiring them to believe in shared values so that they deliver benefits for patients, their families and the community
- Leading with care - understand the underlying emotions that affect their team, and care for team members as individuals, helping them to manage unsettling feelings so they can focus their energy on delivering a great service that results in care for patients and other service users
- Evaluating information - are open and alert to information, investigating what is happening now so that they can think in an informed way about how to develop proposals for improvement

- Connecting our service - understand how things are done in different teams and organisations; they recognise the implications of different structures, goals, values and cultures so that they can make links, share risks and collaborate effectively
- Sharing vision - convey a vivid and attractive picture of what everyone is working towards in a clear, consistent and honest way, so that they inspire hope and help others to see how their work fits in
- Engaging the team - promote teamwork and a feeling of pride by valuing individuals' contributions and ideas; this creates an atmosphere of staff engagement where desirable behaviour, such as mutual respect, compassionate care and attention to detail, are reinforced by all team members
- Holding to account - create clarity about their expectations and what success looks like in order to focus people's energy, give them the freedom to self-manage within the demands of their job, and deliver improving standards of care and service
- Developing capability - champion learning and capability development so that they and others gain the skills, knowledge and experience they need to meet the future needs of the service, develop their own potential, and learn from both success and failure
- Influencing for results - are sensitive to the concerns and needs of different individuals, groups and organisations, and use this to build networks of influence and plan how to reach agreement about priorities, allocation of resources or approaches to service delivery
- Championing the standards of public life – uphold the highest standards of conduct and displaying the principles of selflessness, integrity, objectivity, accountability, openness, honesty, and leadership

3. Role and responsibilities

3.1. Role of the NHS board

NHS boards play a key role in shaping the strategy, vision and purpose of an organisation. They hold the organisation to account for the delivery of strategy and ensure value for money. They are also responsible for assuring that risks to the organisation and the public are managed and mitigated effectively. Led by an independent chair and composed of a mixture of both executive and independent non-executive members, the board has a collective responsibility for the performance of the organisation.

The purpose of NHS boards is to govern effectively, and in so doing build patient, public and stakeholder confidence that their health and healthcare is in safe hands. This fundamental accountability to the public and stakeholders is delivered by building confidence:

- in the quality and safety of health services
- that resources are invested in a way that delivers optimal health outcomes
- in the accessibility and responsiveness of health services
- that patients and the public can help to shape health services to meet their needs
- that public money is spent in a way that is fair, efficient, effective and economic.

3.2. Roles and responsibilities of the non-executive Director

Non-executive directors will work alongside other non-executives and executive directors as an equal member of the board. They share responsibility with the other directors for the decisions made by the board and for success of the organisation in leading the local improvement of healthcare services for patients. Non-executives use their skills and personal experience as a member of their community to:

- Formulate plans and strategy
  - bringing independence, external perspectives, skills, and challenge to strategy development
- Ensure accountability
  - holding the executive to account for the delivery of strategy
  - providing purposeful, constructive scrutiny and challenge

- chairing or participating as a member of key committees that support accountability
- being accountable individually and collectively for the effectiveness of the board
- Shape culture and capability
  - actively supporting and promoting a healthy culture for the organisation which is reflected in their own behaviour
  - providing visible leadership in developing a healthy culture so that staff believe NEDs provide a safe point of access to the board for raising concerns
  - ensuring the directors of the board are 'fit and proper' for the role and champion an open, honest and transparent culture within the organisation
- Context
  - mentoring less experienced NEDs where relevant
- Process, structures and intelligence
  - satisfying themselves of the integrity of reporting mechanisms, and financial and quality intelligence including getting out and about, observing and talking to patients and staff
  - providing analysis and constructive challenge to information on organisational and operational performance
- Engagement
  - ensuring that the board acts in best interests of patients and the public
  - being available to staff if there are unresolved concerns
  - showing commitment to working with key partners

In particular the responsibilities of non-executive directors are to:

- commit to working to, and encouraging within the trust, the highest standards of probity, integrity and governance and contribute to ensuring that the trust's internal governance arrangements conform with best practice and statutory requirements

- provide independent judgement and advice on issues of strategy, vision, performance, resources and standards of conduct and constructively challenge, influence and help the executive board develop proposals on such strategies to enable the organisation to fulfil its leadership responsibilities to patients, for healthcare of the local community
- ensure that patients and service users are treated with dignity and respect at all times, and that the patient is central to trust decision making
- ensure that the board sets challenging objectives for improving its performance across the range of its functions
- structure the performance of management in meeting agreed goals and objectives
- in accordance with agreed board procedures, monitor the performance and conduct of management in meeting agreed goals and objectives and statutory responsibilities, including the preparation of annual reports and annual accounts and other statutory duties
- ensure that financial information is accurate and that financial controls and risk management systems are robust and defensible and that the board is kept fully informed through timely and relevant information (you may be asked to sit on the audit committee on behalf of the board)
- accept accountability to the NHS Improvement for the delivery of the organisation's objectives and ensure that the board acts in the best interests of patients and its local community
- contribute to the determination of appropriate levels of remuneration for executive directors
- participate in the audit committee and take an active part in other committees (including the investment and remuneration committees) established by the board of directors to exercise delegated responsibility
- as a member of board committees, appoint, remove, support, encourage and where appropriate "mentor" senior executives
- bring independent judgement and experience from outside the trust and apply this to the benefit of the trust, its stakeholders and its wider community

- assist fellow directors in providing entrepreneurial leadership to the trust within a framework of prudent and effective controls, which enable risk to be assessed and managed
- assist fellow directors in setting the trust's values and standards and ensure that its obligations to its stakeholders and the wider community are understood and fairly balanced at all times
- ensure that the organisation values diversity in its workforce and demonstrates equality of opportunity in its treatment of staff and patients and in all aspects of its business
- engage positively and collaboratively in board discussion of agenda items and act as an ambassador for the trust in engagement with stakeholders including patients and the local community, dealing with the media when appropriate.

4. The seven principles of public life

The principles of public life apply to anyone who works as a public office-holder and therefore will apply to the successful candidate for this role:

- Selflessness - holders of public office should act solely in terms of the public interest
- Integrity - holders of public office must avoid placing themselves under any obligation to people or organisations that might try inappropriately to influence them in their work. They should not act or take decisions in order to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family, or their friends. They must declare and resolve any interests and relationships
- Objectivity - holders of public office must act and take decisions impartially, fairly and on merit, using the best evidence and without discrimination or bias
- Accountability - holders of public office are accountable to the public for their decisions and actions and must submit themselves to the scrutiny necessary to ensure this
- Openness - holders of public office should act and take decisions in an open and transparent manner. Information should not be withheld from the public unless there are clear and lawful reasons for so doing
- Honesty - holders of public office should be truthful

- Leadership - holders of public office should exhibit these principles in their own behaviour. They should actively promote and robustly support the principles and be willing to challenge poor behaviour whenever it occurs

The Commissioner for Public Appointments would like to find out what you think of the public appointments process. When you have completed the process, the Commissioner would appreciate a few minutes of your time to complete a survey. Your response will be anonymous and will inform the Commissioner's ongoing work with Government Departments to improve the public appointments process.

Given the significant public profile and responsibility members of NHS boards hold, it is vital that those appointed inspire confidence of the public, patients and NHS staff at all times. New regulations now require NHS Improvement to make a number of specific background checks to ensure that those we appoint are “fit and proper” people to hold these important roles. More information can be found on our website.

5. Terms and conditions of appointment

- The remuneration payable for this role is £6,157 pa.
- You will have considerable flexibility to decide how you manage the time needed to undertake this role. On average, it will require at least 2 to 3 days a month, including preparation time away from the trust and the occasional evening engagement.
- Your appointment will be for an initial period of up to four years, after which you may be considered for further terms of office, subject to the needs of the organisation and a good performance.
- You should live in or have strong connections with Gloucestershire.
