Non-executive director Candidate information pack

Reference: M1165

We value and promote diversity and are committed to equality of opportunity for all and appointments made on merit. We believe that the best boards are those that reflect the communities they serve.

We particularly welcome applications from women, people from the local black and minority ethnic communities, and disabled people who we know are under-represented in chair and non-executive roles.

1. The opportunity

There is a vacancy for one non-executive director. This is an exceptional opportunity to share your talents and expertise to make a positive difference to the lives of people in your community.

2. The person specification

Essential criteria

You will need to have a genuine commitment to patients and the promotion of excellent health care services. You will have senior level experience in one or more of the following areas:

- Health & Social Care
- Education
- Housing
- Third sector or equivalent

Inclusion All Non-executive directors must champion the standards of public life – by upholding the highest standards of conduct and displaying the principles of selflessness, integrity, objectivity, accountability, openness, honesty, and leadership.

As a future NHS leader, the successful candidate will be able to demonstrate the range of behaviours required to contribute effectively in this board level role. These are outlined in the NHS Leadership Academy's Healthcare Leadership Model.

Applicants should live in or have strong connections with North Warwickshire, South West Leicestershire or North Coventry and West Leicestershire area.

3. About George Eliot Hospital NHS Trust

George Eliot Hospital NHS Trust provides a range of hospital and community-based services to more than 300,000 people in North Warwickshire, South West Leicestershire and North Coventry. The hub of the Trust is the George Eliot Hospital, based on the outskirts of Nuneaton. The hospital provides a range of elective, non-elective, surgical, medical, women's, children's, diagnostic and therapeutic services.

The Trust also provides a range of community services across Coventry, Warwickshire and Leicestershire. This includes

- A health and wellbeing advisory service for the people of Nuneaton and Bedworth

- Smoking cessation and community dentistry services for the whole of Warwickshire
- TB services for Coventry and Warwickshire
- Blue Sky Sexual Assault Referral Centre.
- Sexual health services across Warwickshire

They are a Hospital Trust that is on the up. They have implemented a number of service delivery changes and consolidated the executive team – developments that earned the Trust a ‘Good’ rating from the Care Quality Commission and helped them exit from ‘Special Measures’ status in July 2014.

They have engaged their staff with their journey to ExCel programme, an initiative that caught the eye of the NHS nationally, and benefit from a strong, committed Trust Board.

As a successful District General Hospital the Trust is now focussing on strengthening its relationship with the wider community through effective stakeholder management.

The Trust already plays a valued role in its local community and is seeking to strengthen and develop this by working with its nearby health and local government partners. It is championing the Accountable Care model which will see it working more collaboratively to provide joined-up health and social care to local people.

So they’re winning – they have great staff, a leadership team that’s committed to improving patient care, and a clear sense of where they need to go based on the NHS Five Year Forward View.

4. Key challenges

Our Strategic objectives:

- Constantly deliver safe high quality care
- Enhance patient experience by providing local care tailored to the individual needs of the patient.
- Develop partnership arrangements to promote and deliver a comprehensive range of value for money integrated services to protect and improve the health of the local community
- Empower, develop and support their staff to encourage positive leadership at every level
- Maintain financial stability, hit all agreed targets and satisfy their regulators

Our Vision:

"To EXCEL at Patient Care"

Our Core value pledges:

- Effective open communication
- Excellence and safety in everything we do
- Challenge but support
- Expect respect and dignity
- Local health that inspires confidence

Appendix 1: Role and responsibilities

2.1 Role of the NHS Board

NHS Boards play a key role in shaping the strategy, vision and purpose of an organisation. They hold the organisation to account for the delivery of strategy and ensure value for money. They are also responsible for assuring that risks to the organisation and the public are managed and mitigated effectively. Led by an independent chair and composed of a mixture of both executive and independent non-executive members, the Board has a collective responsibility for the performance of the organisation.

The purpose of NHS Boards is to govern effectively, and in so doing build patient, public and stakeholder confidence that their health and healthcare is in safe hands. This fundamental accountability to the public and stakeholders is delivered by building confidence:

- in the quality and safety of health services
- that resources are invested in a way that delivers optimal health outcomes
- in the accessibility and responsiveness of health services
- that patients and the public can help to shape health services to meet their needs
- that public money is spent in a way that is fair, efficient, effective and economic.

2.2 Roles and responsibilities of the non-executive director

Non-executive directors will work alongside other non-executives and executive directors as an equal member of the Board. They share responsibility with the other directors for the decisions made by the Board and for success of the organisation in leading the local improvement of healthcare services for patients. Non-executives use their skills and personal experience as a member of their community to:

- Formulate plans and strategy
 - bringing independence, external perspectives, skills, and challenge to strategy development
- Ensure accountability
 - holding the executive to account for the delivery of strategy
 - providing purposeful, constructive scrutiny and challenge
 - chairing or participating as a member of key committees that support accountability
 - being accountable individually and collectively for the effectiveness of the Board
- Shape culture and capability
 - actively supporting and promoting a healthy culture for the organisation which is reflected in their own behaviour
 - providing visible leadership in developing a healthy culture so that staff believe NEDs provide a safe point of access to the Board for raising concerns
 - ensuring the directors of the Board are 'fit and proper' for the role and champion an open, honest and transparent culture within the organisation
- Context
 - mentoring less experienced NEDs where relevant
- Process, structures and intelligence

- satisfying themselves of the integrity of reporting mechanisms, and financial and quality intelligence including getting out and about, observing and talking to patients and staff
- providing analysis and constructive challenge to information on organisational and operational performance
- Engagement
 - ensuring that the Board acts in best interests of patients and the public
 - being available to staff if there are unresolved concerns
 - showing commitment to working with key partners

In particular the responsibilities of non-executive directors are to:

- commit to working to, and encouraging within the Trust, the highest standards of probity, integrity and governance and contribute to ensuring that the Trust's internal governance arrangements conform with best practice and statutory requirements
- provide independent judgement and advice on issues of strategy, vision, performance, resources and standards of conduct and constructively challenge, influence and help the executive board develop proposals on such strategies to enable the organisation to fulfil its leadership responsibilities to patients, for healthcare of the local community
- ensure that patients and service users are treated with dignity and respect at all times, and that the patient is central to trust decision making
- ensure that the Board sets challenging objectives for improving its performance across the range of its functions
- structure the performance of management in meeting agreed goals and objectives
- in accordance with agreed board procedures, monitor the performance and conduct of management in meeting agreed goals and objectives and statutory responsibilities, including the preparation of annual reports and annual accounts and other statutory duties
- ensure that financial information is accurate and that financial controls and risk management systems are robust and defensible and that the Board is kept fully informed through timely and relevant information (you may be asked to sit on the audit committee on behalf of the Board)

- accept accountability to the NHS Improvement for the delivery of the organisation's objectives and ensure that the Board acts in the best interests of patients and its local community
- contribute to the determination of appropriate levels of remuneration for executive directors
- participate in the audit committee and take an active part in other committees (including the investment and remuneration committees) established by the Board of directors to exercise delegated responsibility
- as a member of board committees, appoint, remove, support, encourage and where appropriate "mentor" senior executives
- bring independent judgement and experience from outside the Trust and apply this to the benefit of the Trust, its stakeholders and its wider community
- assist fellow directors in providing entrepreneurial leadership to the Trust within a framework of prudent and effective controls, which enable risk to be assessed and managed
- assist fellow directors in setting the Trust's values and standards and ensure that its obligations to its stakeholders and the wider community are understood and fairly balanced at all times
- ensure that the organisation values diversity in its workforce and demonstrates equality of opportunity in its treatment of staff and patients and in all aspects of its business
- engage positively and collaboratively in board discussion of agenda items and act as an ambassador for the Trust in engagement with stakeholders including patients and the local community, dealing with the media when appropriate.

Appendix 2: The seven principles of public life

The principles of public life apply to anyone who works as a public office-holder and therefore will apply to the successful candidate for this role:

- selflessness - holders of public office should act solely in terms of the public interest

- integrity - holders of public office must avoid placing themselves under any obligation to people or organisations that might try inappropriately to influence them in their work. They should not act or take decisions in order to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family, or their friends. They must declare and resolve any interests and relationships
- objectivity - holders of public office must act and take decisions impartially, fairly and on merit, using the best evidence and without discrimination or bias
- accountability - holders of public office are accountable to the public for their decisions and actions and must submit themselves to the scrutiny necessary to ensure this
- openness - holders of public office should act and take decisions in an open and transparent manner. Information should not be withheld from the public unless there are clear and lawful reasons for so doing
- honesty - holders of public office should be truthful
- leadership - holders of public office should exhibit these principles in their own behaviour. They should actively promote and robustly support the principles and be willing to challenge poor behaviour whenever it occurs

The Commissioner for Public Appointments would like to find out what you think of the public appointments process. When you have completed the process, the Commissioner would appreciate a few minutes of your time to complete a survey. Your response will be anonymous and will inform the Commissioner's ongoing work with Government Departments to improve the public appointments process.

Given the significant public profile and responsibility members of NHS Boards hold, it is vital that those appointed inspire confidence of the public, patients and NHS staff at all times. New regulations now require NHS Improvement to make a number of specific background checks to ensure that those we appoint are “fit and proper” people to hold these important roles. More information please contact sharon.davies19@nhs.net

Appendix 3: Terms and conditions of appointment

- The remuneration payable for this role is £6,157 pa.
- On average this role will require a time commitment equivalent to 2 to 3 days a month.

- Your appointment will be for an initial period of up to four years, after which you may be considered for further terms of office, subject to the needs of the organisation and a good performance
