1. The opportunity

We are recruiting a non-executive director for Lincolnshire Community Health Services NHS Trust. This is an exceptional opportunity to share your talents and expertise to make a positive difference to the lives of people in your community.

2. The person specification

Essential criteria

You will need to have a genuine commitment to patients and the promotion of excellent health care services. Recent, relevant financial experience gained at senior or board level in a complex environment. Applicants should hold a CCAB, CIMA or equivalent professional accounting qualification. The successful individual would be required to Chair the Trust's Audit Committee and be a member of other assurance committees as assigned by the Board Chair.

You will need to be able to demonstrate you can use your experience to:

- work alongside other non-executives and executive colleagues as an equal member of the board
- bring independence, external perspectives, skills and challenge to strategy development
- hold the executive to account by providing purposeful, constructive scrutiny and challenge
- shape and actively support a healthy culture for the trust

All non-executive directors must champion the standards of public life – by upholding the highest standards of conduct and displaying the principles of selflessness, integrity, objectivity, accountability, openness, honesty, and leadership.

As a future NHS leader, the successful candidate will be able to demonstrate the range of behaviours required to contribute effectively in this board level role. These are outlined in the NHS Leadership Academy's Healthcare Leadership Model.

Applicants should preferably live in or have strong connections with Lincolnshire.

- As a minimum this role will require the equivalent to 2 to 3 days a month.
- The remuneration payable for this role is £6,157 pa.

Given the significant public profile and responsibility members of NHS Boards hold, it is vital that those appointed inspire confidence of the public, patients and NHS staff at all times. NHS Improvement make a number of specific background checks to ensure that those we appoint are "fit and proper" people to hold these important roles. More information can be found on the NHS Improvement website.

3. About Lincolnshire Community Health Services NHS Trust

Lincolnshire Community Health Services NHS Trust (LCHS) provides community health services for one of the largest healthcare communities in the country, covering an area of 2,350 square miles and a population of 714,000.

The Trust delivers a wide range of community healthcare services across Lincolnshire, enabling patients and families to access care and support at, or as close to home as possible. The trust works extensively in partnership with other providers within both health and social care, helping people to maintain independent lifestyles for as long as they can. The Trust is committed to helping everyone they care for remaining as healthy as possible and making their experience with them the best it can be.

What the Trust does

Their community healthcare services include:

- general and specialist integrated community nursing and therapy healthcare services
- inpatient beds in four community hospitals

Emergency care services including:

- two urgent care centres, one in Skegness and one in Louth
- two minor injuries units, one in Gainsborough and one in Spalding
- a minor illness and injury unit at the city care centre in Peterborough
- a walk in centre in Lincoln
- GP out of hours services

Healthy lifestyle services, including:

- sexual health services
- podiatry service

Some specialist services for children's and young people.

- children's therapy services
- safeguarding services for both children and adult

The Trust's vision, values and priorities:

LCHS defines its vision within its Trust Purpose "great care, close to home".

Its strategic aims are:

- Providing high quality, safe personalised care
- Delivering value for money and financial sustainability
- Strengthening our positive reputation
- Leading integration and innovation.

The organisation's values are encapsulated within The LCHS Way:

The LCHS Way

We listen, We care, We act, We improve

We listen

- we engage with everyone we work with
- we are united
- we are always positive

We care

- everyone is valued, respected and developed
- knowledge and skills are nurtured
- success is celebrated

We act

- clear goals and the right resources
- freedom coupled with accountability
- emphasis on simplicity

We improve

- we are creative, resourceful and innovative
- integration & collaboration is the way forward
- we're always striving to do better

Lincolnshire Sustainability and Transformation Plan

Lincolnshire health and care organisations have been working together on a five year plan called the Lincolnshire Sustainability and Transformation Plan (STP).

The Trust wants to ensure that services are safe and effective and every pound spent on services in the county makes a real difference for the communities it serves.

The organisation is playing a full and active part in the local healthcare system, ensuring services are safe and effective and that people get a good experience whenever they need to access health care in Lincolnshire. This is a significant focus for the board.

Appendix 1: Role and responsibilities

Role of the NHS Board

NHS Boards play a key role in shaping the strategy, vision and purpose of an organisation. They hold the organisation to account for the delivery of strategy and ensure value for money. They are also responsible for assuring that risks to the organisation and the public are managed and mitigated effectively. Led by an independent chair and composed of a mixture of both executive and independent non-executive members, the Board has a collective responsibility for the performance of the organisation.

The purpose of NHS Boards is to govern effectively, and in so doing build patient, public and stakeholder confidence that their health and healthcare is in safe hands. This fundamental accountability to the public and stakeholders is delivered by building confidence:

- in the quality and safety of health services
- that resources are invested in a way that delivers optimal health outcomes
- in the accessibility and responsiveness of health services
- that patients and the public can help to shape health services to meet their needs
- that public money is spent in a way that is fair, efficient, effective and economic.

Roles and responsibilities of the non-executive director

Non-executive directors will work alongside other non-executives and executive directors as an equal member of the Board. They share responsibility with the other directors for the decisions made by the Board and for success of the organisation in leading the local improvement of healthcare services for patients. Non-executives use their skills and personal experience. to:

Formulate plans and strategy

- bringing independence, external perspectives, skills, and challenge to strategy development

Ensure accountability

- holding the executive to account for the delivery of strategy
- providing purposeful, constructive scrutiny and challenge
- chairing or participating as a member of key committees that support accountability
- being accountable individually and collectively for the effectiveness of the Board

Shape culture and capability

- actively supporting and promoting a healthy culture for the organisation which is reflected in their own behaviour
- providing visible leadership in developing a healthy culture so that staff believe NEDs provide a safe point of access to the Board for raising concerns
- ensuring the directors of the Board are 'fit and proper' for the role and champion an open, honest and transparent culture within the organisation

Context

- mentoring less experienced NEDs where relevant

Process, structures and intelligence

- satisfying themselves of the integrity of reporting mechanisms, and financial and quality intelligence including getting out and about, observing and talking to patients and staff
- providing analysis and constructive challenge to information on organisational and operational performance

Engagement

- ensuring that the Board acts in best interests of patients and the public
- being available to staff if there are unresolved concerns
- showing commitment to working with key partners

In particular the responsibilities of non-executive directors are to:

- commit to working to, and encouraging within the Trust, the highest standards of probity, integrity and governance and contribute to ensuring that the Trust's internal governance arrangements conform with best practice and statutory requirements
- provide independent judgement and advice on issues of strategy, vision, performance, resources and standards of conduct and constructively challenge, influence and help the executive board develop proposals on such strategies to enable the organisation to fulfil its leadership responsibilities to patients, for healthcare of the local community
- ensure that patients and service users are treated with dignity and respect at all times, and that the patient is central to trust decision making
- ensure that the Board sets challenging objectives for improving its performance across the range of its functions
- structure the performance of management in meeting agreed goals and objectives
- in accordance with agreed board procedures, monitor the performance and conduct of management in meeting agreed goals and objectives and statutory responsibilities, including the preparation of annual reports and annual accounts and other statutory duties
- ensure that financial information is accurate and that financial controls and risk management systems are robust and defensible and that the Board is kept fully informed through timely and relevant information (you may be asked to sit on the audit committee on behalf of the Board)

- accept accountability to the NHS Improvement for the delivery of the organisation's objectives and ensure that the Board acts in the best interests of patients and its local community
- contribute to the determination of appropriate levels of remuneration for executive directors
- actively participate in assigned committees (including the remuneration committees) established by the Board of directors to exercise delegated responsibility
- as a member of board committees, provide a view on the appointment, and removal of senior executives in addition to supporting, encouraging and where appropriate "mentoring" senior executives
- bring independent judgement and experience from outside the Trust and apply this to the benefit of the Trust, its stakeholders and its wider community
- assist fellow directors in providing entrepreneurial leadership to the Trust within a framework of prudent and effective controls, which enable risk to be assessed and managed
- assist fellow directors in setting the Trust's values and standards and ensure that its obligations to its stakeholders and the wider community are understood and fairly balanced at all times
- ensure that the organisation values diversity in its workforce and demonstrates equality of opportunity in its treatment of staff and patients and in all aspects of its business
- engage positively and collaboratively in board discussion of agenda items and act as an ambassador for the Trust in engagement with stakeholders including patients and the local community, dealing with the media when appropriate.

Responsibilities of audit committee chair

Audit committee chairs should have recent and relevant financial experience. They share the functions of the other non-executives, and in addition have responsibilities to:

- bring independent financial acumen to the work of the audit committee across its governance, risk management, assurance and internal control functions
- provide leadership to the audit committee to ensure that it is effective in its role and that internal control systems are in place and operating
- ensure that the audit committee is well informed and has timely access to all the information it requires
- facilitate the contribution of all members of the audit committee, auditors and other invited participants
- ensure that the board receives sound advice, assurance and useful and timely reports from the committee
