1. The opportunity

We are recruiting a Non-executive Director for Norfolk Community Health and Care NHS Trust (NCH&C). This is an exceptional opportunity to share your talents and expertise to make a positive difference to the lives of people in your community.

2. The person specification

Essential criteria

You will need to have a genuine commitment to patients and the promotion of excellent health care services. You will have senior or board level finance experience, gained in a large, complex organisation with the ability to chair the Audit Committee, preferably with a financial qualification.

You will need to be able to demonstrate you can use your experience to:

- work alongside other non-executives and executive colleagues as an equal member of the board
- bring independence, external perspectives, skills and challenge to strategy development
- hold the executive to account by providing purposeful, constructive scrutiny and challenge
- shape and actively support a healthy culture for the trust

All non-executive directors must champion the standards of public life – by upholding the highest standards of conduct and displaying the principles of selflessness, integrity, objectivity, accountability, openness, honesty, and leadership.

As a future NHS leader, the successful candidate will be able to demonstrate the range of behaviours required to contribute effectively in this board level role. These are outlined in the NHS Leadership Academy's Healthcare Leadership Model.

Applicants should ideally live in or have connections with the Norfolk area.

On average this role will require the equivalent to 2 to 3 days a month.

- The remuneration payable for this role is £6,157 pa.

Given the significant public profile and responsibility members of NHS Boards hold, it is vital that those appointed inspire confidence of the public, patients and NHS staff at all times. NHS Improvement makes a number of specific background checks to ensure that those we appoint are “fit and proper” people to hold these important roles. More information can be found on our website.

3. About Norfolk Community Health and Care NHS Trust

NCH&C serves a population of nearly 900,000 people in Norfolk with community health and care services, as well as providing a specialist Early Supported Discharge service to stroke patients in Norfolk and Suffolk. Their aim is to constantly improve patients’ lives by providing the best care, close to where they live.

The focus at NCH&C is on continually improving the quality of care offered to local people and on improving access to that care, helping people to move seamlessly from one service to another.

Specialist teams provide personalised health and care services for everyone, from babies to the elderly to improve the lives of patients, whenever and wherever they need them. They are proud to be trusted to enter their homes and be part of their communities.

NCH&C take their responsibility to their local communities very seriously and are dedicated to improving patients’ lives by providing excellent standards of NHS health and care.

The Trust prides itself on being able to offer an excellent health and care service where people most need it. Patients can receive services within their own homes, places of care or residence, as well as within their 11 CQC registered sites including 7 community hospitals and a specialist rehabilitation .

Their Vision:

“To improve the quality of people’s lives, in their homes and community, by providing the best in integrated health and social care.”

Here you will find their commitments to their staff, patients and commissioners.

Community

- As one Trust, we enhance the lives of our patients through our commitment, support and working together
- We are proud to serve our local Community by providing integrated quality services with our partner organisations
- We respect and value the trust we are given to enter our patients’ homes and lives

Compassion

- We provide compassionate, co-ordinated and personalised quality care that is safe and effective
- We empower and educate our patients and their carers in the effective delivery and management of their own independence, health and wellbeing
- We are dedicated to holistic, compassionate care and demonstrate this through our commitment to our personal and professional development

Creativity

- Our expertise, commitment and creativity are key to the successful delivery of our services
- We are always open to new ideas that support us in delivering effective compassionate care to our patients
- We continuously innovate and implement efficient delivery of care

Appendix 1: Role and responsibilities

Role of the NHS Board

NHS Boards play a key role in shaping the strategy, vision and purpose of an organisation. They hold the organisation to account for the delivery of strategy and ensure value for money. They are also responsible for assuring that risks to the organisation and the public are managed and mitigated effectively. Led by an independent chair and composed of a mixture of both executive and independent non-executive members, the Board has a collective responsibility for the performance of the organisation.

The purpose of NHS Boards is to govern effectively, and in so doing build patient, public and stakeholder confidence that their health and healthcare is in safe hands. This fundamental accountability to the public and stakeholders is delivered by building confidence:

- in the quality and safety of health services
- that resources are invested in a way that delivers optimal health outcomes
- in the accessibility and responsiveness of health services
- that patients and the public can help to shape health services to meet their needs
- That public money is spent in a way that is fair, efficient, effective and economic.

Roles and responsibilities of the non-executive director

Non-executive directors will work alongside other non-executives and executive directors as an equal member of the Board. They share responsibility with the other directors for the decisions made by the Board and for success of the organisation in leading the local improvement of healthcare services for patients. Non-executives use their skills and personal experience as a member of their community to:

- Formulate plans and strategy
  - bringing independence, external perspectives, skills, and challenge to strategy development
- Ensure accountability
  - holding the executive to account for the delivery of strategy
  - providing purposeful, constructive scrutiny and challenge

- chairing or participating as a member of key committees that support accountability
- being accountable individually and collectively for the effectiveness of the Board
- Shape culture and capability
  - actively supporting and promoting a healthy culture for the organisation which is reflected in their own behaviour
  - providing visible leadership in developing a healthy culture so that staff believe NEDs provide a safe point of access to the Board for raising concerns
  - ensuring the directors of the Board are 'fit and proper' for the role and champion an open, honest and transparent culture within the organisation
- Context
  - mentoring less experienced NEDs where relevant
- Process, structures and intelligence
  - satisfying themselves of the integrity of reporting mechanisms, and financial and quality intelligence including getting out and about, observing and talking to patients and staff
  - providing analysis and constructive challenge to information on organisational and operational performance
- Engagement
  - ensuring that the Board acts in best interests of patients and the public
  - being available to staff if there are unresolved concerns
  - showing commitment to working with key partners

In particular the responsibilities of non-executive directors are to:

- commit to working to, and encouraging within the Trust, the highest standards of probity, integrity and governance and contribute to ensuring that the Trust's internal governance arrangements conform with best practice and statutory requirements

- provide independent judgement and advice on issues of strategy, vision, performance, resources and standards of conduct and constructively challenge, influence and help the executive board develop proposals on such strategies to enable the organisation to fulfil its leadership responsibilities to patients, for healthcare of the local community
- ensure that patients and service users are treated with dignity and respect at all times, and that the patient is central to trust decision making
- ensure that the Board sets challenging objectives for improving its performance across the range of its functions
- structure the performance of management in meeting agreed goals and objectives
- in accordance with agreed board procedures, monitor the performance and conduct of management in meeting agreed goals and objectives and statutory responsibilities, including the preparation of annual reports and annual accounts and other statutory duties
- ensure that financial information is accurate and that financial controls and risk management systems are robust and defensible and that the Board is kept fully informed through timely and relevant information (you may be asked to sit on the audit committee on behalf of the Board)
- accept accountability to the NHS Improvement for the delivery of the organisation's objectives and ensure that the Board acts in the best interests of patients and its local community
- contribute to the determination of appropriate levels of remuneration for executive directors
- participate in the audit committee and take an active part in other committees (including the investment and remuneration committees) established by the Board of directors to exercise delegated responsibility
- as a member of board committees, appoint, remove, support, encourage and where appropriate "mentor" senior executives
- bring independent judgement and experience from outside the Trust and apply this to the benefit of the Trust, its stakeholders and its wider community

- assist fellow directors in providing entrepreneurial leadership to the Trust within a framework of prudent and effective controls, which enable risk to be assessed and managed
- assist fellow directors in setting the Trust's values and standards and ensure that its obligations to its stakeholders and the wider community are understood and fairly balanced at all times
- ensure that the organisation values diversity in its workforce and demonstrates equality of opportunity in its treatment of staff and patients and in all aspects of its business
- Engage positively and collaboratively in board discussion of agenda items and act as an ambassador for the Trust in engagement with stakeholders including patients and the local community, dealing with the media when appropriate.

Responsibilities of audit committee chairs

Audit committee chairs should have recent and relevant financial experience. They share the functions of the other non-executives, and in addition have responsibilities to:

- bring independent financial acumen to the work of the audit committee across its governance, risk management, assurance and internal control functions
- provide leadership to the audit committee to ensure that it is effective in its role and that internal control systems are in place and operating
- ensure that the audit committee is well informed and has timely access to all the information it requires
- facilitate the contribution of all members of the audit committee, auditors and other invited participants
- ensure that the board receives sound advice, assurance and useful and timely reports from the committee
