

Public Appointments

16th March 2018

Please find below a selection of Public Appointments currently or soon to open for applications. Please forward this on to any prospective candidates within your personal and wider networks. Please note information and timings can change.

Full details of all public appointment opportunities can be found at:
<http://publicappointments.cabinetoffice.gov.uk/>

Positions currently open to applications

External Member - Monetary Policy Committee of the Bank of England – closes Wednesday 21st March

The Bank of England is the central bank of the United Kingdom. Standing at the centre of the UK's financial system, the Bank is committed to promoting and maintaining monetary and financial stability. The Monetary Policy Committee of the Bank of England has responsibility for formulating monetary policy.

Applications are sought from candidates with experience operating at a senior level in business, financial markets, a policymaking environment or academia. Successful candidates should be able to absorb large volumes of complex information and quickly reach reasoned and robust conclusions; be able to debate the Bank's external policy and effectively communicate the Bank's policy decisions; and be able to maintain discretion and engender trust in staff, peers and stakeholders.

- Time: 3 days per week.
- Remuneration: £152,700 per year.

Full details are available on the Public Appointments Website
or for more information please contact MPCApplication@hmtreasury.gsi.gov.uk

Chair – Legal Services Consumer Panel of the Legal Services Board – Sunday 25th March

The Legal Services Board ensures that regulation in the legal services sector is carried out in the public interest and that the interests of consumers are placed at the heart of the system.

Applications are sought from candidates with experience of leading a national body. Successful candidates should have experience of consumer issues; be able to work effectively with the Legal Services Board and maintain its independence; be able to draw conclusions from research and market data, identify creative and innovative solutions to complex problems and develop policy. Knowledge of the law and / or the legal services market and an understanding of the contribution that legal services make to society as a whole is desirable.

- Time: 30 per year.
- Remuneration: £15,000 per year.

Full details are available on the Public Appointments Website
or for more information please contact nonexecutive@wig.co.uk

Stay up to date on <http://publicappointments.cabinetoffice.gov.uk>

or  @publicappts

ofgem Chair – Office of Gas and Electricity Markets – closes Monday 26th March

The Office of Gas and Electricity Markets (Ofgem) regulates the monopoly companies which run the gas and electricity networks. It takes decisions on price controls and enforcement, acting in the interests of consumers and helping the industries to achieve environmental improvements.

Applications are sought from candidates who can provide strategic and innovative leadership and challenge to a large and complex organisation during periods of change in a complex economic, commercial and regulatory environment. Successful candidates should be able to build and develop a complex organisation to enable it to meet future needs and have good communication and interpersonal skills. Experience of regulatory and governance bodies, consumer needs, and / or electricity and gas markets is desirable.

- Time: 3 to 3 ½ days per week.
- Remuneration: £160,000 to £170,000 per year.

Full details are available on the Public Appointments Website
or for more information on the role of Chair please contact 65645@odgersberndtson.com

Trustee \(x3\) – Royal Museums Greenwich – closes Monday 26th March

Royal Museums Greenwich comprises the National Maritime Museum, the Royal Observatory, and the Queen's House. Together they work to illustrate the importance of the sea, ships, time and the stars, and their relationship with people.

The Royal Museums Greenwich are seeking to appoint three Trustees from academic, legal and astronomy fields.

Applications are sought from candidates with a commitment to the work of the Museums, who are able to make strategic decisions, have strong communication skills, and are able to engage with the museum's key stakeholders and support its fundraising activities.

Candidates for the Academic Trustee should have a record of success within the academic sphere; have a sound understanding of the impact of Britain's maritime past on its economic, cultural, social, and political history in the world today; have experience of leading knowledge transfer; and be able to persuade external partners to contribute funding and other support to the development of the Museum's programmes.

Applicants for the Legal Trustee should have a demonstrable record of success in the legal sphere and an understanding of the law relating to charitable institutions.

Candidates for the Astronomer Trustee should have a record of success in the field of historical and / or contemporary astronomy at a national or international level; have a personal profile and network within the field of science and the ability to influence and persuade external partners to contribute to funding and other support to the development of the Museum's programmes.

- Time: 6 meetings a year, 2 to 4 Committee meetings, and up to one evening or day event at the Museum a month.
- Remuneration: Unremunerated.

Full details are available on the Public Appointments Website
or for more information on the role of Chair please contact priya.mistry@culture.gov.uk

Members – School Teachers' Review Body – closes Monday 26th March

The School Teachers' Review Body makes recommendations on the pay, professional duties and working time of school teachers in England and Wales and reports to the Secretary of State for Education and the Prime Minister.

. Successful candidates will be able to operate at a strategic level within a complex organisation, have an understanding of pay, remuneration, performance management and reward issues; have an understanding of the policy, financial and operational constraints that impact remuneration decisions; and be able to engage with a range of stakeholders. An understanding of public sector reward issues and current developments in education policy, is desirable.

- Time: 25 days per year.
- Remuneration: £300 per day.

Full details are available on the Public Appointments Website
or for more information please contact PublicAppointments.APPLICATIONS@education.gov.uk

Chair – Social Mobility Commission – closes Friday 30th March

The Social Mobility Commission monitors progress towards improving social mobility in the UK, and promotes social mobility in England.

Applications are sought from candidates with a commitment to improving social mobility and an in-depth and up-to-date understanding of the area. Successful candidates should be able to lead the Commission in building a coalition for social mobility with business and beyond to create high-quality post-16 education choices; have excellent communication and stakeholder management skills; and be able to think strategically about social mobility issues, in order to set the strategic direction for achieving social mobility within the wider policy context.

- Time: 3 days per month.
- Remuneration: Unremunerated.

Full details are available on the Public Appointments Website
or for more information please contact PublicAppointments.APPLICATIONS@education.gov.uk

Trustees - Victoria and Albert Museum – closes Monday 2nd April

The Victoria and Albert Museum is the world's largest museum of decorative arts and design, housing a permanent collection of over 4.5 million objects. Its collection spans 5,000 years of art, from ancient times to the present day, in virtually every medium, from the cultures of Europe, North America, Asia and North Africa.

Applications are sought from candidates who are leaders within the creative industries. Successful candidates should be able to advise the Board on current and future initiatives including capital projects and international partnerships within the content of the Museum's overall strategy; be able to work with Board Members in governance and committee roles; and have excellent communication and ambassadorial skills.

- Time: 6 Board meetings and (if serving on a sub-committee) 5-8 sub-committee meetings per year, plus an annual away day, and occasional other events.
- Remuneration: Unremunerated.

Full details are available on the Public Appointments Website
or for more information please contact patrick.driscoll@culture.gov.uk

Member for Northern Ireland – Security Industry Authority – closes Tuesday 3rd April

The Security Industry Authority regulates and licenses the private security industry in the UK.

Applications are sought from candidates with a successful track record of achievement in a Board-level, or comparable role, within a major organisation and an awareness of the political and stakeholder landscape in Northern Ireland. Successful candidates should have a good understanding of the issues that arise from delivering services and business improvement within a high-profile and sensitive environment; who are able to work with external partners; have a good understanding of the regulation of the private security sector or a comparable sector; be able to promote new thinking to achieve change and continuous improvement; and strong communication, negotiating and influencing skills.

- Time: 32 days per year.
- Remuneration: £9,160 per year.

Full details are available on the Public Appointments Website
or for more information please contact publicappointments@homeoffice.gsi.gov.uk

hs2 Chair – High Speed 2 Ltd (HS2 Ltd) – closes Wednesday 6th April

High Speed Two (HS2) Limited is the company responsible for developing and promoting the UK's new high speed rail network. It is funded by grant-in-aid from the government.

Applications are sought from candidates with a record of achievement in senior strategic leadership in the transport, construction and regeneration / development or other comparable sector. They should have experience in leading change management within a complex organisation and be able to mentor and develop the board. Experience of leading on large infrastructure projects; and board level commercial and financial acumen is desirable.

- Time: 3 days per week.
- Remuneration: £230,000 to £250,000 per year.

Full details are available on the Public Appointments Website
or for more information please contact Responses@RussellReynolds.com

Chair – Organising Committee for the 2022 Commonwealth Games Birmingham – closes Friday 6th April

The Commonwealth Games is one of the largest mega multi-sport events in the world, attracting more than 6,500 athletes and officials and over a million spectators. The role of the Organising Committee is to deliver an outstanding 2022 Commonwealth Games for the athletes, the spectators, for those in the host city, the country and the Commonwealth Games family.

Applications are sought from candidates with a record of achievement in business, public service, or sport. Successful candidates should be able to foster collaborative working relationships with national, regional and local government; have strong communication, interpersonal and presentation skills with experience of media handling; and have an understanding of the complexities and subtleties of large organisations and delivery in multi-stakeholder environments.

- Time: 1 day per week.
- Remuneration: £250,000 per year.

Full details are available on the Public Appointments Website
or for more information please contact publicappointments@culture.gov.uk

Stay up to date on <http://publicappointments.cabinetoffice.gov.uk>

or  @publicappts

Trustee – Royal Botanic Gardens, Kew – closes Friday 6th April

Royal Botanic Gardens Kew is an internationally important botanical and mycological research and education institution. It manages botanic gardens at Kew in southwest London, and at Wakehurst Place in Sussex which is home to the Millennium Seed Bank. It currently employs around 800 staff and is led by its Director and overseen by the Board of Trustees.

Applications are sought from candidates with expertise in science and / or communications to help enhance public understanding of Kew's role as a leading science and conservation organisation. Candidates must demonstrate an enthusiasm for and genuine interest in the work delivered by Kew; an ability to analyse issues at a strategic level; an ability to question, challenge constructively and influence decision making; and an ability to influence and engage a strong and diverse network of people and organisations.

- Time: 10-12 days per year
- Remuneration: The role is unremunerated

Full details are available on the Public Appointments Website
or for more information please contact andrew.morris2@defra.gsi.gov.uk

United Kingdom Atomic Energy Authority – Chair – closes Wednesday 6th April

The UK Atomic Energy Authority (UKAEA) is an independent non-Departmental Public Body which is sponsored by BEIS. UKAEA carries out fusion research in the UK on behalf of the Government at the Culham Centre for Fusion Energy (CCFE).

Successful candidates should have the ability to lead a substantial and complex organisation with experience of one or more of the following national and/or international areas: Technology-based commercial business; universities and other leading scientific research establishments; scientific/technology research funding organisation; science/ energy policy role in government; or technology commercialisation/ transfer role.

- Time: Minimum of 25 days per year.
- Remuneration: £25,000 per year.

Full details are available on the Public Appointments Website
or for more information please contact Simon McDonald on 020 7529 6359 or Laura Spurgin on 020 7529 1072

Chair – NHS Counter Fraud Authority – closes Wednesday 11th April

The NHS Counter Fraud Authority is a special health authority charged with identifying, investigating and preventing fraud and other economic crime within the NHS and the wider health group.

Applications are sought from candidates with the experience to lead the development of a high-performing, new national organisation within a complex and fast-moving environment. Successful candidates should be experienced in corporate governance and organisational skills including strategic planning, financial and risk management and managing organisational change. They should also be able to work collaboratively across organisational boundaries and have strong interpersonal and communication skills

- Time: 2 to 3 days per month.
- Remuneration: £14,450 per year.

Full details are available on the Public Appointments Website
or for more information please contact appointments.team@dh.gsi.gov.uk

Stay up to date on <http://publicappointments.cabinetoffice.gov.uk>

or  @publicappts

Forthcoming Opportunities

Key positions expected to be advertised within the next few months.

Central Arbitration Committee – Deputy Chairs and Members

The Central Arbitration Committee (CAC) is an independent statutory authority with specific functions relating to trade unions and employers. The Committee encourages fair and efficient arrangements in the workplace by resolving collective disputes in England, Scotland and Wales, either by voluntary agreement or, if necessary, through a legal decision. The most significant function of the CAC is adjudicating on the recognition and de-recognition of trade unions for collective bargaining in the workplace whilst seeking agreement between a union and the employer where possible.

Civil Procedure Rule Committee - One Barrister

The Civil Procedure Rule Committee was set up under the Civil Procedure Act 1997 to make rules of court for the Civil Division of the Court of Appeal, the High Court and the County Court.

Coal Authority - Non-Executive Directors

The Coal Authority manages the effects of the UK's coal mining legacy. It also owns, on behalf of the country, the majority of the coal in Britain, and licenses coal mining.

Competition and Markets Authority - Non-executive Directors, Panel Members and Inquiry Chairs

The Competition and Markets Authority was launched in April 2014 to replace the Office for Fair Trading and Competition Commission following the Enterprise and Regulatory Reform Act 2013. It is an independent Non-Ministerial Department working to promote competition for the benefit of consumers.

NHS Pay Review Body – Members

The NHS Pay Review Body advises the Government on pay issues for the majority of non-medical and non-dental NHS employed staff on Agenda for Change pay, terms and conditions.

Nuclear Decommissioning Authority - Members

The Nuclear Decommissioning Authority (NDA) works to ensure the safe and efficient clean-up of the UK's nuclear legacy. The Non-Executive Directors will bring experience in the nuclear sector or in major projects, and finance or business to support the authority as it aims to deliver safe, sustainable and publicly acceptable solutions to the challenge of nuclear clean-up and waste management.

NHS Counter-Fraud Authority - Chair

The NHS Counter Fraud Authority is a new Special Health Authority which was established on 1st November 2017. It is a new organisation tasked to lead the fight against fraud, bribery and corruption in the NHS.

NHS Improvement – Members

NHS Improvement (NHSI) is responsible for overseeing Foundation trusts and NHS trusts, as well as independent providers that provide NHS-funded care.

Office of Rail and Road – Chair

The Office of Rail and Road (ORR) is the independent economic and safety regulator for Britain’s railways, and monitor of performance and efficiency for England’s Strategic Road Network. ORR regulates Network Rail including setting the targets it has to achieve and reports regularly on its performance; the HighSpeed1 link to the channel tunnel; health and safety standards and compliance across the whole rail industry; and oversees competition and consumer rights issues in respect of the railways. ORR also monitors Highways England to hold the company to account on its commitments to improve the performance and efficiency of England’s Strategic Road Network.

Prison & Probation Ombudsman - Ombudsman

The Prisons and Probation Ombudsman (PPO) carries out independent investigations into deaths and complaints in custody. The purpose of these investigations is to understand what happened, to correct injustices and to identify learning for the organisations whose actions we oversee so that the PPO makes a significant contribution to safer, fairer custody and offender supervision.

Prison Service Pay Review Body - Chair

The Prison Service Pay Review Body (PSPRB) is made up of a number of individuals who have senior-level experience of handling pay and other matters, both in the private and public sectors. The PSPRB also includes an economist member, a member with a Northern Ireland background and a member with a trade union background. It gives independent advice on pay for governors, operation managers, prison officers and support grades in the England and Wales Prison Service, and equivalent posts in Northern Ireland.

Science Museum - Trustees

The Science Museum Group is devoted to the history and contemporary practice of science, medicine, technology, industry and media. With 5 million visitors each year and an unrivalled collection, it consists of: Science Museum, Museum of Science and Industry (Manchester), National Railway Museum (York), National Media Museum and National Railway Museum (Shildon) - the most significant group of museums of science and innovation worldwide.

Small Business Commissioner – Committee Members

The Small Business Commissioner (SBC), established by the Enterprise Act (“the Act”) 2016, builds on a package of measures to tackle late payment and unfavourable payment practices in the private sector. The SBC is a Non-Departmental Public Body (NDPB), operationally independent of Government and a partner organisation of BEIS. The SBC covers the whole of the UK. The SBC launched on 20 December 2017, following the appointment of Paul Uppal to the role of Small Business Commissioner in October 2017.

Tate - Finance Trustee

The Tate is an institution that holds the national collection of British art from 1500 to the present day and international modern and contemporary art. The Tate has a network of four art museums: Tate Britain (London), Tate Liverpool, Tate St Ives, and Tate Modern, (London).

VisitBritain - Trustees

VisitBritain is the national tourism agency, responsible for marketing Britain worldwide and developing Britain’s visitor economy. It works with UK Trade & Investment as well as airlines, travel operators, global brands and the official tourism bodies for London, England, Scotland and Wales.