Making an application

Thank you for your interest in the appointment of Chair of Betsi Cadwaladr University Health Board. The new Chair will be required to provide strong leadership of the Health Board and to uphold the values of NHS Wales.

The attached Annexes provide details on the role of the Chair, the person specification and the role and responsibilities of the Betsi Cadwaladr University Health Board. An outline of the selection process is also provided.

To make an application, please visit the Welsh Government Public Appointments website here <https://cymru-wales.tal.net/vx/lang-en-GB/mobile-0/appcentre-3/brand-2/candidate/jobboard/vacancy/7/adv/>.

To apply for this role, click on the Betsi Cadwaladr University Health Board vacancy and click on 'Apply' at the bottom left hand corner. The first time you apply for a post, you will need to complete a registration form for the Welsh Government's online application system. You will only need to register once, and you will be able to keep yourself updated on the progress of your application, and any other applications you make, via your registered account.

Once you've registered, you'll be able to access the application form. To apply you will need to submit the application form and two supporting documents.

The first document is a personal statement answering the questions below. This document should be no more than two sides of A4. Your application may be rejected if you exceed this limit. The second supporting document is a full, up to date CV.

The two documents should be uploaded to the "Reasons for applying" section of the online application form.

Personal Statement

Your personal statement is your opportunity to demonstrate how you meet each of the criteria as set out in the questions below. How you choose to present this information is up to you. However, you should aim to provide detailed examples that demonstrate how your knowledge and experience matches each of the criteria, and which describe what your role was in achieving a specific result. It will also benefit the selection panel if you can be clear which particular evidence you provide relates to which criteria. Providing separate paragraphs in relation to each criterion is common practice.

Question 1 - Please provide an example, with outcomes, of a situation where you have provided forward thinking, strategic leadership in the development of a successful private, public or third sector organisation.

Question 2 - Please provide an example, with outcomes, of a situation where you have built highly effective relationships in order to build and maintain the confidence of a range of partners and stakeholders.

Betsi Cadwaladr University Health Board

Question 3 - Please provide an example, with outcomes, of a time when you have ensured that a Board worked effectively through the collective involvement of its members in a robust and transparent decision making process.

Question 4 - Please explain the methods you have used previously in a Board leadership situation to ensure ownership and accountability of corporate objectives.

Question 5 - Please provide an example, with outcomes, of a time when you used your communication skills clearly and succinctly in engaging people at all levels.

Question 6 - Please describe a situation when you have been required to allocate scarce resources to ensure the delivery of service priorities within a robust corporate governance framework.

Curriculum Vitae

Please ensure that your CV includes brief details of your current or most recent post and the dates you occupied this role. Please identify any past or present Ministerial appointments.

Indicative Timetable

Closing date: 22nd March 2018

Shortlisting complete: w/c 19th March 2018

Interviews held: to be confirmed, either the 10th or 13th April

Start date: 1st September 2018 *

 A shadowing period prior to 01 September 2018 will be organised by mutual agreement.*

Key facts about the post

Location: Board meetings are normally held monthly at various locations across the University Health Board. The University Health Board also has various committees which meet either monthly, bi-monthly or quarterly.

Remuneration and Expenses: The remuneration for the role of Chair of the Health Board is a fixed sum of £69,840 per annum. You also will be entitled, on production of supporting receipts, to the re-imbursment of travel and subsistence expenses incurred whilst on Local Health Board business. Subject to the exception noted in (e), it is the policy of the Welsh Government that all recent employees of LHBs and NHS Trusts should serve a non-involvement break before being considered for an NHS Public Appointment.

Any other information that may materially affect your application for appointment should be declared in the application form under the Conflict of Interests section.

Applicants should be persons who conduct themselves at all times in a manner which will maintain public confidence.

In particular, applicants are required to declare whether they are aware of anything in their private or professional life that would be an embarrassment to themselves or to the Welsh Government if it became known in the event of appointment.

Candidates should also note that membership of a LHB is a disqualifying office for membership of the National Assembly for Wales under the National Assembly for Wales (Disqualification) Order 2015.

Conflicts of Interest

You should particularly note the requirement for you to declare any private interests which may, or may be perceived to, conflict with the role and responsibilities as Chair of Betsi Cadwaladr University Health Board, including any business interests and positions of authority outside of the role in Betsi Cadwaladr University Health Board.

Betsi Cadwaladr University Health Board

If appointed, you must declare these interests. These may be explored at interview more fully. Any conflicts will be brought to the attention of the Cabinet Secretary for Health and Social Services when he is provided with a list of appointable candidates from which to make his selection.

Standards in public life

The Chair will be expected to adhere to the standards of good governance set for the NHS in Wales, which are based on the Welsh Government's Citizen Centred Governance Principles and incorporate Nolan's "Seven Principles of Public Life".

Role and Responsibilities – Betsi Cadwaladr University Health Board

Background

Betsi Cadwaladr University Health Board is the largest health organisation in Wales, providing a full range of primary, community, mental health and acute hospital services for a population of around 678,000 people across the six counties of North Wales (Anglesey, Gwynedd, Conwy, Denbighshire, Flintshire, and Wrexham).

The Health Board has a budget of £1.3 billion and a workforce of approximately 16,500.

The Health Board has three main hospitals (Ysbyty Gwynedd in Bangor, Ysbyty Glan Clwyd in Bodelwyddan and Wrexham Maelor Hospital) along with a network of community hospitals, health centres, clinics, mental health units and community team bases. The Health Board also coordinates the work of 109 GP practices and NHS services provided by dentists, opticians and pharmacists in North Wales.

Their Purpose

- To improve health and deliver excellent care.

Their Vision

- To improve the health of the population, with a particular focus upon the most vulnerable in our society.
- To develop an integrated health service which provides excellent care delivered in partnership with the public and other statutory and third sector organisations.
- To develop its workforce so that it has the right skills and operates in a research – rich learning culture.

Their Strategic Goals

- To improve health and well-being for all and to reduce health inequalities.
- To work in partnership to design and deliver more care closer to home.
- To improve the safety and outcomes of care to match NHS best.
- To respect individuals and to maintain dignity in care.
- To listen and to learn from the experience of individuals.
- To support, train and develop its staff to excel.
- To use resources wisely, transforming services through innovation and research.

The Role of the Board

The three key roles through which the Betsi Cadwaladr University Health Board demonstrates leadership within the organisation are:-

- formulating strategy;
- ensuring accountability by holding the organisation to account for the delivery of the strategy and through seeking assurance that systems of control are robust and reliable;
- shaping a positive culture for the Board and the organisation.

Betsi Cadwaladr University Health Board

The Chair leads a team of ten non-executive directors (Independent Members) who come together in a differentiated partnership with the Chief Executive and nine other executive directors to form the Board.

The role of Board Chair focuses on four key areas:-

- Strategy – to lead to strategic development and decision-making.
- Performance – to ensure that effective management arrangement and an effective team are in place at the top level of the organisation. To help clarify which decisions are reserved for the Board and then ensure that the rest are clearly delegated and to hold management to account for its performance in meeting agreed goals and objectives, through purposeful challenge and scrutiny and to monitor the reporting of performance.
- Risk – to ensure that financial information is accurate and that financial controls and systems of risk management and assurance are robust and defensible.
- Behaviour – to live up to the highest ethical standards of integrity and probity and comply fully with the Code of Conduct. Board members should demonstrate through their behaviour that they are focusing on their responsibilities to citizens, the organisations and its stakeholders

The Selection Process

The selection panel will assess your application form in terms of your CV and personal statement to determine whether you meet the criteria for the role, and whether or not you will be invited to interview.

The panel can rely only on the information you provide in your CV and personal statement to assess whether you have the skills and experience required. Please ensure that you provide evidence to support how you meet all of the criteria and questions asked to complete as part of your personal statement as set out on pages 3 and 4.

The selection panel will consist of Dr Andrew Goodall, Director General and NHS Wales Chief Executive, Welsh Government, Sioned Rees, Welsh Government, Jeff Farrar as Senior Independent Panel Member and David Jenkins as an independent panel member.

Your application may be “long-listed”, subject to the volume of applications received, before it is passed to the shortlisting panel for consideration. You should be aware that in this situation, your application might not be considered in full by the entire selection panel.

We anticipate that during the week commencing 21st March 2018 the panel will have decided who will be invited for interview during week commencing 9th April 2018.

Only the strongest applicants, who the panel feels have best demonstrated that they meet the criteria outlined in the Information for Candidates pack, will be invited to interview. However, if you have applied under the guaranteed interview scheme and you meet the minimum essential criteria for the post, then you will also be invited for interview.

If you are unable to make the arranged interview date, we will endeavour to re-arrange it but it might not be possible due to time constraints within the appointment timetable or selection panel availability.

You will receive email communication from the Appoint system to let you know whether or not you have been invited to be interviewed. It is our intention that interviews will take place at the offices of the Welsh Government, Crown Building, Cathays Park, Cardiff CF10 3NQ.

If invited to interview, the panel will question you about your skills and experience, asking specific questions to assess whether you meet the criteria set out for the post.

The appointment process may include further assessment of suitability for the role in addition to an interview. Further information will be provided in advance to those called for interview.

Candidates who the panel believe are ‘appointable’ will be recommended to the Cabinet Secretary for Health and Social Services who will make the final decision.

Betsi Cadwaladr University Health Board

The Cabinet Secretary for Health and Social Services may choose to meet with appointable candidates before making a decision. There will be a time gap between interview and a final appointment decision being made. Candidates who have been interviewed will be kept informed of progress.

If you are successful, you will receive a letter from the Cabinet Secretary for Health and Social Services appointing you as Chair of Betsi Cadwaladr University Health Board, which will confirm the terms on which the appointment is offered.

If you are unsuccessful at interview, you will be notified by Welsh Government. We appreciate it takes a lot of time and effort to apply for roles and that feedback is a valuable part of the process. As a result, the letter will provide the details of who you may approach for feedback on your interview and application, if you so wish.
