Counter Fraud Authority

Chair of NHS Counter Fraud Authority SP17-38

The Secretary of State for Health and Social Care is looking to appoint a Chair to the NHS Counter Fraud Authority (NHSCFA). The NHSCFA is a new special health authority, which took over responsibility for tackling fraud and corruption in the NHS in England.

As Chair of the Authority you will oversee strategic direction setting in cooperation and accordance with the Department of Health and Social Care's (DHSC) Counter Fraud Strategic Plan, and be responsible for advising the DHSC on the performance of non-executive directors

As Chair you will have the ability to lead the development of a high-performing, new national organisation in a complex, fast-moving environment. You will work collaboratively across organisational boundaries to achieve shared goals, and have strong interpersonal skills and be a skilled communicator. Applicants will also have a portfolio of corporate governance and organisational skills.

Remuneration will be £14,450 per annum for a time commitment of 2-3 days per month.

The Secretary of State for Health and Social Care determines the length of appointment, which will run until 31 October 2020.
