INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

Role and Responsibilities of Amgueddfa Cymru – National Museum Wales

Introduction

Amgueddfa Cymru is one of the leading cultural organisations and national institutions in Wales. Amgueddfa Cymru is visited by 1.8 million people each year.

Background

Established by Royal Charter in 1907, Amgueddfa Cymru is one of the largest museums in the United Kingdom, and the most important cultural institution in Wales. The Museum is the custodian of internationally significant, diverse collections and a leader in education and cultural participation.

Amgueddfa Cymru is responsible for Wales' seven national museums: National Museum Cardiff; St Fagans: National History Museum; Big Pit: National Coal Museum in Blaenavon; National Wool Museum in Dre-fach, Felindre; National Roman Legion Museum in Caerleon; National Slate Museum in Llanberis, Snowdonia, and the National Waterfront Museum, Swansea. Amgueddfa Cymru also has a National Collections Centre near Cardiff. There are over 5 million individual items in our collections, embracing art and design, history and archaeology, and natural sciences.

Amgueddfa Cymru is funded by the Welsh Government as a Welsh Government Sponsored Body, and has a Board of Trustees whose role is to set the strategic direction of the organisation, and to ensure proper management of its resources. Amgueddfa Cymru's total Grant-in Aid from the Welsh Government in 2017-18 was £22 million. It employs over 600 staff.

Vision - Amgueddfa Cymru "Inspiring people, changing lives"

Our purpose is to inspire people through our museums and collections to find a sense of well-being and identity, to discover, enjoy and learn bilingually, and to understand Wales' place in the wider world.

Our work is based on the principle that culture is created by people and communities. Our collections and other resources partly come from the society of which we are part, and are continually renewed through our work with the public. Our natural sciences collections affect the biodiversity and geodiversity of Wales and make comparisons on a global scale. We are accountable for our use of these resources to the nation we serve.

Amgueddfa Cymru – National Museum Wales

The Museum has important partnership schemes with local museums and galleries throughout Wales which involves the development of exhibitions drawing from the national collections held by the Museum.

The Vision is supported by the following commitments:

- Prosper
- Experience
- Learn
- Participate

The Selection Process

The interview panel will assess candidates' CVs and personal statements to determine who it believes best meet the criteria for the role, and who will be invited to interview. The panel will rely only on the information you provide in these documents to assess whether you have the skills and experience required. Please ensure that you provide evidence to support how you meet all of the essential criteria.

The selection panel will be chaired by Peter Owen (Welsh Government). Remaining panel members, including a senior independent panel member, are yet to be confirmed. Shortlisted candidates will be advised of the full panel prior to interview.

Your application may be "long-listed", subject to the volume of applications received, before it is passed to the shortlisting panel for consideration. You should be aware that in this situation, your application might not be considered in full by all panel members.

We anticipate that the panel will have decided who will be invited for interview by the end of January.

The panel will select for interview only the strongest applicants who it feels have demonstrated that they best meet the criteria set out in the person specification and essential criteria. However, if you have applied under the guaranteed interview scheme and you meet the minimum essential criteria for the post, then you will also be invited for interview.

If you are invited to interview and if the interview date is not already provided in this information pack, we will aim to provide you with as much notice as we can of the interview date. If you are unable to make the arranged interview date, we will endeavour to re-arrange it but it might not be possible due to time constraints within the appointment timetable or selection panel availability.

You will receive email communication from the Appoint system to let you know whether or not you have been invited to be interviewed. It is our intention that interviews will take place at Amgueddfa Cymru in Cardiff.

If invited to interview, the panel will question you about your skills and experience, asking specific questions to assess whether you meet the criteria set out for the post.

The Welsh Government candidates who the panel believe are 'appointable' will be recommended to the Minister who will make the final decision. The Minister may choose to meet with appointable candidates before making a decision. If he does, he will meet the candidates in the presence of the panel chair or their nominated representative. The Museum candidates will be appointed by the Panel. There will be a time gap between interview and a final appointment decision being made. Candidates who have been interviewed will be kept informed of progress. Once appointed, all Trustees are treated equally and there shall be no distinction in their duties or responsibilities.

If you are successful, you will receive a letter inviting you to accept an appointment as a Trustee of Amgueddfa Cymru, which will confirm the terms on which the appointment is offered.

If you are unsuccessful at interview, you will be notified by Welsh Government. We appreciate it takes a lot of time and effort to apply for roles and that feedback is a valuable part of the process. As a result, the letter will provide the details of who you may approach for feedback on your interview and application, if you so wish.
