Lay Commissioner (x2) - Judicial Appointments Commission - closing Monday 11th February

The Judicial Appointments Commission was established in statute as part of the 2005 Constitutional Reform Act. It has the vital role of ensuring appointment to the judiciary is based on merit and from the broadest possible pool of talent. This important work must be led, as it is now, by a capable and effective group of Commissioners working as a team to deliver the highest calibre of judicial appointments and to ensure these standards are maintained at a time of unprecedented demand for new judicial appointments.

Applications are sought from candidates who have probity, excellent judgement and interpersonal skills to assist in the most senior judicial appointments and to represent the Commission. We are currently seeking two new lay Commissioners, including one who can represent our work in Wales and with the Welsh Government. Our current Commissioners bring a breadth of experience from a variety of backgrounds and we are keen to maintain and enhance this balance with these appointments.

- Time commitment: Up to 28 days per year.
- Remuneration: £338 per day.

Independent Monitoring Board (IMB) roles at local prisons and immigration removal centres

Inside every prison, immigration removal centre and some immigration facilities at airports and ports, there is an Independent Monitoring Board (IMB) - a team of local people recruited especially for this unique and challenging role. IMB Members are independent, unpaid and work an average of 2-3 days per month. Their role is to monitor the day-to-day life in their local prison or removal centre and ensure that proper standards of care and decency are maintained. Opportunities arise regularly across England and Wales, and at a couple of immigration centres in Scotland. You can find out more about IMBs on their website here.
