North Staffordshire Combined
Healthcare NHS Trust

Non-executive Director

Candidate information pack

Reference: M1855

We value and promote diversity and are committed to equality of opportunity for all and appointments made on merit. We believe that the best boards are those that reflect the communities they serve.

We particularly welcome applications from women, people from the local black and minority ethnic communities, and disabled people who we know are under-represented in chair and non-executive roles.

Our recruitment processes are conducted in accordance with the Code of Governance to ensure that they are made on merit after a fair and open process so that the best people, from the widest possible pool of candidates, are appointed.

1. The opportunity

We are recruiting a Non-executive Director (NED) for North Staffordshire Combined Healthcare NHS Trust (NSCHT). This is an exceptional opportunity to share your talents and expertise to make a positive difference to the lives of people in your community.

A key priority for the Trust has been to form strong partnerships across health, social care and the voluntary sector to enable the integration of physical and mental health. The STP Strategy for integration outlines the development of three Alliances across Staffordshire as being key enablers.

The Trust has played an important role in establishing the successful multi – agency Northern Alliance. The Vision is to develop integrated resources and services across 10 localities. To support this, the Trust has undergone a significant organisational restructure and transformation.

The trust has just received their published report for their latest CQC well-led inspection. The trust has been rated Outstanding which makes it only 1 of 2 specialist mental health NHS trusts to receive this rating nationally.

2. The person specification

Essential criteria

You will need to have a genuine commitment to patients and the promotion of excellent health care services. You will have recent, relevant senior level finance experience in a large and complex organisation with the capacity to Chair the Audit Committee. The successful candidate will also have a financial qualification.

You will need to be able to demonstrate you can use your experience to:

- work alongside other non-executives and executive colleagues as an equal member of the board
- bring independence, external perspectives, skills and challenge to strategy development
- hold the executive to account by providing purposeful, constructive scrutiny and challenge
- shape and actively support a healthy culture for the trust

All non-executive directors must champion the standards of public life – by upholding the highest standards of conduct and displaying the principles of selflessness, integrity, objectivity, accountability, openness, honesty, and leadership.

As a future NHS leader, the successful candidate will be able to demonstrate the range of behaviours required to contribute effectively in this board level role. These are outlined in the NHS Leadership Academy's Healthcare Leadership Model.

Applicants should ideally live within a 30-mile radius of the trust or have strong connections with the area the trust serves.

- On average this role will require the equivalent to 2 to 3 days a month.
- The remuneration payable for this role is £6,157 pa.

Given the significant public profile and responsibility members of NHS Boards hold, it is vital that those appointed inspire confidence of the public, patients and NHS staff at all times. NHS Improvement makes a number of specific background checks to ensure that those we appoint are “fit and proper” people to hold these important roles. More information can be found on our website.

Responsibilities of audit committee chairs

Audit committee chairs should have recent and relevant financial experience. They share the functions of the other non-executives, and in addition have responsibilities to:

- bring independent financial acumen to the work of the audit committee across its governance, risk management, assurance and internal control functions
- provide leadership to the audit committee to ensure that it is effective in its role and that internal control systems are in place and operating
- ensure that the audit committee is well informed and has timely access to all the information it requires
- facilitate the contribution of all members of the audit committee, auditors and other invited participants
- ensure that the board receives sound advice, assurance and useful and timely reports from the committee

3. About North Staffordshire Combined Healthcare NHS Trust

NSCHT was established in 1994. They provide mental health and learning disability care to people predominantly living in the city of Stoke-on-Trent and North Staffordshire.

They work from both hospital and community based premises, operating from approximately 30 sites. Their main site is Harplands Hospital, which opened in 2001 and provides the setting for most of their inpatient units.

NSCHT provide services to people of all ages with a wide range of mental health and learning disability needs. Sometimes their service users need to spend time in hospital, but much more often they are able to provide care in outpatient settings, community resource settings and in people's own homes.

They also provide specialist inpatient and day patient care to children across the West Midlands with severe or complex mental health conditions (Tier 4 Child and Adolescent Mental Health Services, CAMHS) and substance misuse services to people throughout Staffordshire.

Their team of around 1,286 whole time equivalent (WTE), 1,438 (headcount) are committed to providing high standards of quality and safe services. They serve a population of approximately 464,000 people from a variety of diverse communities across Northern Staffordshire.

Their work in active partnership across the health economy with North Staffordshire GP Federation, University Hospitals North Midlands NHS Trust, Staffordshire and Stoke-on-Trent Partnership Trust, two main clinical commissioning groups (CCGs) – North Staffordshire CCG and Stoke on Trent CCG, Stoke City Council, Staffordshire County Council and numerous voluntary sector organisations.

In addition, NSCHT work closely with voluntary agencies which support people with mental health problems, such as the North Staffs Users Group, Addiction Dependency Solutions (ADS), Approach, ASIST advocacy service, Brighter Futures, Changes, EngAGE, North Staffs Huntington's Disease Association, Mind, North Staffs Carers Association, RaPT, Reach and the Beth Johnson Association.

They manage their services through four clinical locality directorates:

- Stoke-on-Trent Community
- North Staffordshire Community
- Specialist Services
- Acute and Urgent Care

Each directorate is headed by a Clinical Director supported by an Associate Director.

NSCHT provide a growing research and development programme in collaboration with local and regional research networks – extending the role of this function features in their plans for the future including building on current infrastructure to continue to deliver high-quality research across a wide range of mental health topics.

NSCHT work in partnership with a range of educational establishments to support medical training. These educational links raise the profile of the trust, help the wider healthcare community to improve mental health and learning disability services and ensure that staff are kept up-to-date with best practice. Their research and education partners are:

- Health Education England – West Midlands
- Keele University
- Staffordshire University
- West Midlands Academic Health Science Network

This is an exciting time for them as they play a full part in the transformation of the Staffordshire health economy. As a Board member you will be supporting transformation across health and social care, primary and secondary care and mental health and physical health care. The Trust is also working with key partners, by leading a number of workstreams including mental health, digital and organisational development/transformation to improve the health of the population.

The Trust's vision, values and priorities

Their vision - the way they want their organisation to be seen

'Outstanding' – Our Journey continues

Their strategic aim - as one of the main providers of care - is to develop enhanced and coordinated health and social care. They are looking to be recognised as a centre of excellence in both integrated and specialist care, bringing innovative solutions to their services and embedding a culture of continuous learning across the organisation. This is reflected in their vision and objectives, as well as their focus on quality and safety

This will be achieved through seven key objectives:

1. To enhance service user and carer collaboration
2. Provide the highest quality, safe and effective services
3. Inspire and implement innovation and research
4. Embed an open and learning culture that enables continual improvement
5. Attract, develop and retain the best people
6. Maximise and use our resources effectively
7. Take a lead role in partnership working and integration

They are committed to providing the highest quality and safe mental health services. Integral to this is their emphasis on four key quality priorities defined by the board and embedded across the organisation known as 'SPAR' – Safe, Personalised, Accessible and Recovery-focused.

S - Their services will be consistently safe

P - Their care will be personalised to the individual needs of their service users

A - Their processes and structures will guarantee access to services for service users and their carers

R - Their focus will be on the recovery needs of those with mental illness

Their values are Proud to CARE: Compassionate, Approachable, Responsible, Excellent - developed by their staff and service users, as part of Listening into Action (LiA)
