The role and responsibilities of HEFCW

Background

The Higher Education Funding Council for Wales (HEFCW) is a Welsh Government sponsored body established in May 1992 under the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 (“the 1992 Act”).

It is the body responsible for the regulation of higher education in Wales, under powers conferred on it by the Higher Education (Wales) Act 2015. It also administers funds made available by the Welsh Government to support education, research and associated activities at nine universities in Wales, including the Open University in Wales and provides funds for prescribed higher education courses at further education colleges.

In 2019-20 HEFCW will manage a budget in excess of £152m.

HEFCW is also subject to the Well-being of Future Generations Act 2015.

HEFCW’s Annual Report and Accounts for 2018-19, its Corporate Strategy for 2017-2020 and a copy of the Minister for Education’s Remit letter for 2019-20 are available on HEFCW’s website www.hefcw.ac.uk.

Council’s Role

HEFCW’s principal tasks currently are twofold:

- to regulate higher education in Wales through the approval and monitoring of institutions’ fee and access plans; assessing the quality of HE in regulated institutions; and scrutinising the performance of HE through a framework for the organisation and management of the financial affairs of regulated institutions; and
- to distribute funds made available by the Welsh Government for the provision of education, supporting research and other eligible activities by higher education providers in Wales.

HEFCW also provides expert advice to the Welsh Government and the sector. Its Chief Executive is the designated Accounting Officer, having a specific responsibility relating to the use of public funds made available by the Welsh Government.

HEFCW’s Corporate Strategy 2017-20 sets out the priorities the Council will consider in pursuing its vision for a sustainable, accessible and internationally excellent higher education sector in Wales.

Higher Education Funding Council for Wales

HEFCW's mission is to:

- Fund higher education in Wales
- Regulate higher education providers in Wales
- Influence higher education with evidence-based advice and strong partnership working
- Work in partnership with students
- Operate effectively as an organisation.

The selection process

The advisory assessment panel will assess candidates' CVs and personal statements to determine who it believes best meet the criteria for the role, and who will be invited to interview. The panel will rely only on the information you provide in your CV and statement to assess whether you have the skills and experience required. Please ensure that you provide evidence to support how you meet all of the essential criteria.

The selection panel will be chaired by Huw Morris, Director, Skills Higher Education and Life-long learning, Welsh Government and will also comprise David Allen, Chair, HEFCW, Louise Casella, Director, The Open University in Wales and Ian Price, Wales Director, CBI Wales.

Your application may be "long-listed", subject to the volume of applications received, before it is passed to the shortlisting panel for consideration. You should be aware that in this situation, your application might not be considered in full by all of the panel.

We anticipate that during late January / early February 2020 the panel will have decided who will be invited for interview in February 2020.

The panel will select for interview only the strongest applicants who it feels have demonstrated that they best meet the criteria set out in the person specification.

However, if you have applied under the guaranteed interview scheme and you meet the minimum essential criteria for the post, then you will also be invited for interview.

If you are unable to make the arranged interview date, we will endeavour to re-arrange it but it might not be possible due to time constraints within the appointment timetable or selection panel availability.

You will receive email communication from the Application Centre to let you know whether or not you have been invited to be interviewed. It is our intention that interviews will take place in Cardiff.

If invited to interview, the panel will question you about your skills and experience, asking specific questions to assess whether you meet the criteria set out for the post.

Candidates who the panel believe are 'appointable', will be recommended to Ministers who will make the final decision. The Minister may choose to meet with appointable candidates before making a decision. If he does, he will meet all candidates and in the presence of the panel chair or their nominated representative. There will be a time gap between interview and a final appointment decision being made. Candidates who have been interviewed will be kept informed of progress.

Higher Education Funding Council for Wales

If you are successful, you will receive a letter appointing you as member of HEFCW, which will confirm the terms on which the appointment is offered.

If you are unsuccessful at interview, you will be notified by Welsh Government. We appreciate it takes a lot of time and effort to apply for roles and that feedback is a valuable part of the process. As a result, the letter will provide the details of who you may approach for feedback on your interview and application, if you so wish
