Advert

The Black Country Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust are seeking to recruit two Non-Executive Directors.

After significant recent success in working collaboratively, Black Country Partnership NHS Foundation Trust and Dudley and Walsall Mental Health Partnership NHS Trust have now merged to form the Black Country Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust from 1 April this year. This is an exciting new time for our new organisation who will be responsible for the delivery of mental health and specialist learning disability services across the whole of the Black Country health system. This merger provides a unique opportunity to build on the outstanding joint work our clinicians have been leading to deliver innovative developments which improve services for people across the Black Country. We are excited about the future and share a passion and commitment to developing an outstanding organisation. Together we will have an income of almost £170 million, with over 3,000 staff operating out of 65 sites over four boroughs.

The Trust is a major provider of specialist mental health services across Sandwell and Wolverhampton, and specialist services for people with a learning disability across the four Black Country boroughs. It also provides universal community childrens services in Dudley.

We are seeking two people with:

- a background in public health
- an understanding of the Black Country community
- understanding of how IT can support the local health economy
- experience in partnerships or the Third Sector (Charities)
- an ability to work with the Assembly of Governors

The time commitment is expected at between 3 and 4 days per month.

In return we offer:

- Annual remuneration of £11,692 pa (under review)
- Full reimbursement of travelling and subsistence expenses
- Ongoing training and development
- An initial three year term with extensions thereafter subject to satisfactory performance and governing body approval. This may be subject to amendment dependent on current organisation transactional plans.

Job Description – Non-Executive Director

All applicants need to be eligible for registration as a public member of the Trust, residing in any of the areas within the Trust’s designated public constituency.

For an informal discussion about the posts, please contact:

Ashi Williams, Director of People on 07775 014 326 or ashi.williams1@nhs.net

Closing Date: 15 June 2020

Interview Date: 26 June 2020

The Trust is committed to equal opportunities, and is a non-smoking organisation.

Role and Responsibilities

The Non-Executive Director will, in addition to their collective responsibility with colleague Directors, provide general counsel based on their knowledge and expertise such that the Chair and other Directors may seek their guidance on particular issues.

The key responsibilities of the Non-Executive Directors include the following:

- commit to working to, and encouraging within the Trust, the highest standards of probity, integrity and governance and contribute to ensuring that the Trust's internal governance arrangements conform with best practice and statutory requirements;
- provide independent judgement and advice on issues of strategy, vision, performance, resources and standards of conduct and constructively challenge, influence and help the Executive Team develop proposals on such strategies;
- in accordance with board procedure, monitor the performance and conduct of management in meeting agreed goals and objectives and statutory responsibilities, including the preparation of annual reports and annual accounts, including the quality reports and accounts, and other statutory duties;
- obtain assurance that financial information is accurate and that financial controls and risk management systems are robust and defensible;
- obtain assurance that information about the quality and safety of services is accurate and that the associated systems are robust and defensible;
- contribute to the determination of appropriate levels of remuneration for Executive Directors and other very senior managers;
- participate in and if required chair the Trust committees, as well as take an active part in other committees established by the Board of Directors to exercise delegated responsibility;
- as a member of board committees, appoint, remove, support, encourage and where appropriate 'mentor' senior executives;
- bring independent judgement and experience based on expertise from outside the Trust and apply this to the benefit of the Trust, its stakeholders and its wider community;
- assist fellow Directors in setting the Trust's strategic aims, ensuring that the necessary financial, human and other resources are in place for the Trust to meet its objectives, and that performance is effectively monitored and reviewed;

- assist fellow Directors in providing entrepreneurial leadership to the Trust within a framework of prudent and effective controls, which enable risk to be assessed and managed;
- assist fellow Directors in setting the Trust's values and standards and ensure its obligations to its stakeholders and the wider community are understood and fairly balanced at all times;
- engage positively and collaboratively in board discussion of agenda items and act as an ambassador for the Trust in engagement with stakeholders including the local community, dealing with the media when appropriate;
- work and engage with the Assembly of Governors; and
- undertake the duties as a Hospital Manager, as defined within the Mental Health Act 1983.

Term of office

The initial term of office is for three years.

Termination of a Non-Executive Directorship of the Trust, other than on the expiry of a term of office, is a matter for the Assembly of Governors.

Non-Executive Directors will be subject to regular appraisal by the Chair, in accordance with a process approved by the Assembly of Governors.

Remuneration

The remuneration for the role of Non-Executive Director will be determined by the Assembly of Governors, and is based on time commitment of between 3 and 4 days per month, which may include some evening work. Travelling and subsistence expenses, where incurred in relation to duties will be reimbursed at rates approved by the Assembly of Governors.

Anyone covered by this Code of Conduct who comes to know that the Trust has entered into, or proposes to enter into a contract in which he/she or any person connected with him/her has any pecuniary interest (as defined below), direct or indirect, the member shall declare his/her interest by giving notice in writing of such fact to the Trust as soon as practicable.

For the sake of clarity, the following definition of terms is to be used in interpreting this requirement:

- (i) "spouse" shall include any person who lives with another person in the same household (and any pecuniary interest of one spouse shall, if known to the other spouse, be deemed to be an interest of that other spouse);
- (ii) "contract" shall include any proposed contract or other course of dealing.
- (iii) "Pecuniary interest": subject to the exceptions set out below, a person shall be treated as having an indirect pecuniary interest in a contract if:-

- a) he/she, or a nominee of his/her, is a member of a company or other body (not being a public body), with which the contract is made, or to be made or which has a direct pecuniary interest in the same, or
- b) he/she is a partner, associate or employee of any person with whom the contract is made or to be made or who has a direct pecuniary interest in the same.

Exception to Pecuniary interests: a person shall not be regarded as having a pecuniary interest in any contract if: -

- a) neither he/she or any person connected with him/her has any beneficial interest in the securities of a company of which he/she or such person appears as a member, or
- b) any interest that he/she or any person connected with him/her may have in the contract is so remote or insignificant that it cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to influence him/her in relation to considering or voting on that contract, or
- c) those securities of any company in which he/she (or any person connected with him/her) has a beneficial interest do not exceed £5,000 in nominal value or one per cent of the total issued share capital of the company or of the relevant class of such capital, whichever is the less. However where this applies, the person shall nevertheless be obliged to disclose/declare their interest.
