Blood and Transplant

Non-Executive Directors of the NHS Blood & Transplant (NHSBT)

The Secretary of State for Health and Social Care is looking to appoint two Non-Executive Directors (NED) of the NHS Blood & Transplant (NHSBT). As NEDs, you will work with the Chair and six other NEDs and the Executive team to govern the activities of NHSBT. With them you will share the corporate responsibility for the decisions of the Board and the performance of the organisation.

You will have experience of supporting effective delivery of substantial transformation in a private or public sector organisation. You will possess the ability to operate effectively on the board of a large and complex national organisation, with the ability to develop and deliver robust governance arrangements. In your role as a NED you should also have an understanding of the broad role of NHSBT.

Finally, you will have a significant senior career record of achievement in one or more of the following areas:

- People/Human Resources: bringing experience in areas such as organisational development, talent development, and diversity and inclusion strategy
- Communications/Marketing/Public affairs: bringing experience of working collaboratively with others to deliver large programmes

Remuneration will be £7,883 per annum for a time commitment of two to three days per month. The Secretary of State for Health and Social Care determines the length of appointment, which may be for up to a maximum of 3 years.
