Ministerial Foreword

Dear Candidate,

Thank you for your interest in the role of Chair for The Committee on Fuel Poverty. You may already have some idea about the important work of Committee on Fuel Poverty and this candidate pack will tell you more about the purpose and the nature of the role.

The Committee on Fuel Poverty is at an exciting point in its history building a stronger role both domestically and internationally and has ambitious plans to deliver its strategy through delivering excellent environmental services, creating a world leading energy-efficient environment and making The Committee on Fuel Poverty a brilliant place to work.

If you believe you have the experience and qualities we are seeking to contribute to this important organisation, we very much look forward to hearing from you.

We welcome applications from individuals of all backgrounds, including those from under-represented groups.

Lord Callanan,
Minister for Business, Energy and Corporate Responsibility

The Committee on Fuel Poverty

The Committee on Fuel Poverty (CFP) is an advisory non-departmental public body sponsored by the Department for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy. The Committee advises on the effectiveness of policies aimed at reducing fuel poverty and encourage greater co-ordination across the organisations working to reduce fuel poverty. The Committee on Fuel Poverty (CFP) consists of a Chair and 5 members who are appointed for 3 years.

The role of the Committee is to report on the progress towards the interim milestones and 2030 fuel poverty target. It also reports on the effectiveness and impact of policies and schemes on fuel poverty.

The Committee has had it's fourth annual report, published in June 2020.

Further information about The Committee on Fuel Poverty can be found here:
<https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/committee-on-fuel-poverty/about>

The Role

As a member of the Committee on Fuel Poverty, you will be responsible for monitoring and reporting on progress towards the interim milestones and 2030 fuel poverty target.

You will also support and challenge the Government on its delivery approach to underpin successful implementation of the strategy.

Encouraging and fostering a partnership approach between and within Government and stakeholders, including at local level is key to the role.

You will work where appropriate with the Committee on Climate Change, which has a statutory duty to consider fuel poverty when advising on carbon budgets, to help underpin efforts to ensure that the decarbonisation and fuel poverty agendas work together

Diversity

We are committed to increasing the diversity of our boards and bringing in talent, regardless of its origins. We encourage applications from all candidates regardless of ethnicity, religion or belief, gender, sexual orientation, age, disability or gender identity. We particularly welcome applications from people with ethnicity, gender and disability characteristics currently underrepresented on our Boards.

Arrangements for candidates with a disability: As a Disability Confident leader, we guarantee to interview anyone with a disability whose application meets the essential criteria for the post. More details on the criteria can be found in this pack. If you wish to apply through the Disability Confident scheme, you will need to tick that option on the Diversity Monitoring form that you will submit alongside your application.

Adjustments: All candidates are entitled to request reasonable adjustments at any stage of the application process. If you would like to discuss reasonable adjustments prior to submitting your application, please contact the campaign manager at publicappointments@beis.gov.uk.

Person Specification

The responsibilities of new Members will include monitoring and reporting on progress of the new strategy 'Sustainable warmth: protecting vulnerable households in England', supporting and challenging the Government on its delivery approach, and encouraging a partnership approach between and within Government and stakeholders in tackling fuel poverty.

Criteria

Essential Criteria:

Please tailor your application to demonstrate the criteria of the role and try to use specific examples where possible.

- The ability to identify and quickly understand sound evidence and analyse complex issues.
- The ability to establish strong working relationships with, senior stakeholders, including Government, other public bodies, industry and the voluntary sector and social enterprise.
- The ability to tailor communications and convey clear messages on complex subjects to a variety of audiences.
- Knowledge of fuel poverty or a related area of policy (such as housing, health, energy supply, local government, household energy efficiency and community engagement).
- Desirable:
- Knowledge of how innovation, including technology developments and artificial intelligence, can play an important role in delivering the fuel poverty strategy; and
- Knowledge of options to decarbonise home heating and how the costs of these options can be allocated so as not to penalise those on low incomes.
- Experience of managing research projects and setting strategic direction in a complex subject area.

Terms of Appointment

- Appointment Term: An initial period of 3 years.
- Remuneration: £8,400 per annum.
- Time Commitment: 2 days per month for a period of 3 years
- Location: London
- Nature of Appointment: This is a Public Appointment by the Secretary of State for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy. The post holder would be an officeholder and not be an employee of the Department or The Committee on Fuel Poverty.
- Availability: Successful candidate/s will be encouraged to take up their appointment as soon as possible, following the successful completion of pre-appointment checks and security clearance (at Basic level).

How to Apply

Your application is submitted in two parts.

Both parts must be submitted by 23:00 on 22 August 2021 in order for your application to be considered complete. Applications received after this date will not be considered.

Part one: CV and Statement of Suitability

- One document combining a two-page statement of suitability and two-page CV (no more than four sides of A4 in total). The key to a good application is to give the reader specific information about how you meet the criteria for appointment. Think about your knowledge, skills, experience and personal attributes, and take full advantage of the space available. Provide practical evidence that best demonstrates how you meet the es

Annex A: Conflicts of Interest and Due Diligence

Public Appointments require the highest standards of propriety, involving impartiality, integrity and objectivity, in relation to stewardship of public funds and the oversight and management of all related activities. This means that any private, voluntary, charitable or political interest that might be material and relevant to the work of the body concerned should be declared.

It is important that those appointed as members of public bodies maintain the confidence of Parliament and the public. If there are any issues in your personal or professional history that could, if you were appointed, be misconstrued, cause embarrassment, or cause public confidence in the appointment to be jeopardised, it is important that you bring them to the attention of the Assessment Panel and provide details of the issue(s) in your application. In considering whether you wish to declare any issues, you should also reflect on any public statements you have made, including through social media. The Panel may explore issues with you before they make a recommendation on the appointment.

As part of our due diligence checks we will consider anything in the public domain related to your conduct or professional capacity. This will include us undertaking searches of previous public statements and social media, blogs or any other publicly available information. This information may be made available to the Panel and they may wish to explore issues with you, should you be invited to interview.

If you have any queries or would like to discuss further, please contact the BEIS Appointments, Diversity and Talent Team at publicappointments@beis.gov.uk.

Annex B: The Seven Principles Underpinning Public Life

In 1995 the Committee on Standards in Public Life defined seven principles for public life. All candidates for are expected to demonstrate a commitment to, and an understanding of, the value and importance of the principles of public service which are:

1. Selflessness
2. Integrity
3. Objectivity
4. Accountability
5. Openness
6. Honesty
7. Leadership

Further information on the principles of public life can be found here.

Annex C: Complaints Procedure

If you feel you have reason to complain you should direct your concerns in the first instance to the Public Appointments team (publicappointments@beis.gov.uk) who will make every effort to deal with these and respond to you within 48 hours.

If your complaint is not dealt with satisfactorily, you can find information about the steps you can take under BEIS Complaints Procedure here.

The Commissioner for Public Appointments is the independent regulator of public appointments. The Commissioner's primary role is to provide independent assurance that public appointments are made in accordance with the Governance Code on Public Appointments. The Commissioner also investigates complaints and may conduct an inquiry into the policies and practices followed in relation to appointments processes which he regulates. The Commissioner will not investigate complaints relating to non-selection unless it appears that the appointments process has breached the Governance Code on Public Appointments.

You can contact the Commissioner by email at publicappointments@csc.gov.uk or by post, as follows:
